Introduction

Symmetry can often be confused with beauty. Of course, symmetry is an important part of this, but it is never the sole reasoning. Beauty is within the eye of the beholder. Words are subjective, opinions are a way of expressing emotion, and through emotion, words. Words drive literature, poetry and, in tandem with it, love.

Through my "discovery" intensive youth, I have lived through many situations, relationships, and friendships. Through all of these encounters, I have written. Since I was old enough to feel physically attracted I have written. Although, starting young, I never accounted for the fact that I would like to continue writing poems, and for a long time at it. After a while, I decided I wanted to write towards something that would drive a story or an underlying theme. This ended up as The Testament. A testament of my love towards those around me, and my loss and hurt within love. The Testament is the story of how a lost boy found himself in his life.

I always knew The Testament would end at poem number one hundred, but I had never planned ahead. There ended up being a couple of poems in between books, that act as a shift in tone between The Testament and The X. The new book was to be more serious and focused more on the surreal and impactful of ones past. How hard it can be to forget people and events. The 'X' is a symbol. It represents a positive future, a fulfilling present, and a forgetful past. Within these words and poems are real emotions, real people and most of all, the real me. It wasn't written for me though. Not at all. It was written to remind a future iteration of me, as well as you, of who we used to be. Our phases in life. Our youth. Through a testament to a relationship, a calendar to remind one of going forward, to a story of a young man who lost his son. These are the real stories of boys, girls, and my nom de plume, Stitch.

Please enjoy,
William Adamson

The Testament

2011 - 2012

The story of a boy lost in the city.

The Flower of Life - I

Some flowers are small
Some bloom more
When I look up to the sky
I can see the stars sore
When the flowers make love float in the air
That's when, there is nothing to fear
When the lightning cracks and heaven opens it's door
That's when I relized
Love is something more

I'll be me - II

When the window breaks
I know the time has come
For you there might be many
But for us there are just some
So don't tell me
What I can't or can
You think you are better Just because of your love span
Girl, you might think i'm an ugly guy
But with stars as standards, no wonder why
Just take a moment, relax and swell
Please! For all sakes, do tell!
I promise not to sett my anger free
No, I'll stop that I'll be me

Follow - III

If you follow the beat you might get your way
If you follow your instincts you might fly away
If you follow love the best things will come true
If you follow the stream
You might find something new
But if you follow yourself
You can't go wrong
'cause if you forfill your dream
Love is always strong

Far Away - IV

Once apon a time, there was a man who was confused
He tried to impress a lady
She was not amused
The poor man was in distress
The poor man loved the mistress
So one day, he searched for assistance
He met a women of the resistance
She knew how to please a lady
The plan was weird
And the plan was shady
He knew now what he had to do
So he reached the castle
And he made it true
He walked up to the girl
He had remembered all the tips
And from that moment
He kissed her lips

Hero - V

The times you wish you were the hero
The times you wish you were the star
The times you tried to do things right
But never got any far
Don't we all wish for a better future
Don't we all erease the past
The things that are done
Are the things though of last
I want to be the hero
To be the one who can change
To be the one with power
To do the rearrange
But end up being the villain
For all the crimes I do
I am left alone
But she is too
My fair maiden
The one far away
The one I want back
The one I wan't to stay
No, we cant all be the heroes
Some of us must fall
The greater they are

The greater the call

Closer to my love - VI

Iv'e never really seen the light
So I don't know if it's bright
It would be nice with a hint or two
If that's what I get
Then that's what il do
It seems like everybody has seen the light
And that I'm left behind
Like I'm all alone
Like I'm one of a kind
I don't want to be left alone
I want to stand tall!
So please carry me!
Don't make me fall
I've done it a lot
I do it all the time
I've tried to be like you
But im no good mime
I'm tired of waiting
I wan't you now
I do care when
But I don't care how
I just want you in my arms
As easy as this
Now come closer
Closer to my kiss

Loved Ones - VII

The people I loved are here today
Never for me
They would never stay
The people I loved
Never loved me back
I didn't deserve it
Cause of my lack
For understanding their way
For the things I did
For future day
The only person I can say ever loved me back
Has a boy friend, not to ever have me

Thats why i can say
It could never be
I have only been rejected
It's really sad because I never reflected
Upon the things that was important
Upon the things that were true
I'd never lie
I adore you
You know who I'm talking about
The one and only one that's to shout
She has a boyfriend too
Not to shabby
I think he'll do
But then again
Who am I to charge?
I can't even get a girlfriend
How's that for large?
I wish some day
I'll find the one
To hold my son
The one she
That's perfect for me

I'm Sorry. - VIII

I'm sorry
But i have to go
I'm sorry for the things i did
I'm sorry for the things that show
I have to carry my own way
You would make it worse if I'd stay
So please, please leave me alone
You brought me pain
Of all the things you've done
I thought it would be just fine
I thought I would survive
I thought that you were mine
But that thought left long ago
Along with the believes
For things that were so
The things that were so good
You gave me up
Like you never should!

Never trust me
Never again
Cause I'm sick of you trying to be my friend
When all you do is take me down
And when I fall I always drown
But you have been there in between
The times I didn't make it for the scene
I'm sorry if you get offended
But that's pretty much how this ended
Listen, yes we can be friends
But I can't control my self anymore
So please leave me alone
It only makes me sore
My love for you has always been the same
But some how and some where
This turned into a game
But I don't want to play
I don't even want to stay
Please forgive me for the damage I've done
I hope you have forgot me by the rise of the sun

True Love - IX

We have yet to meet
Our love has yet to become
Some things are ment to be given
Some things has yet to be done
One day we will meet
It wont be bad
It will only be sweet Il like you
Il like you so much
And I think you'll have
That special touch
That all guys want
That all guys need
Baby, you got me hooked
Just like speed
I wrote this just for you
Please cherish It
Like I know you would do

Why so awkward? - X

As i sit here wondering what I did

The things I said
The things I hid
Some times I become weird
I get awkward and stupid
I get strange with those who cared
But there is no shame
Everybody can be here
To blame
And see that nervous is what it was
And I hope you see why and because An easy explanation really Quite short quite freely
It is because of love
The thing that makes the birds fly above
And on top of that It's normal
It's good and nice
It's formal
Don't believe me?
Look back
See the time go into attack
Yes there you see
It's nothing to fear
Nothing to be afraid of
No need to stare

The Truth - XI

For all I know the truths betrayed
For all I said
Has now been laid
To rest somewhere
Lost in time
Lost is space
But makes us rime
And trust in the things we think are true
And to fall down on what that pull us through
But the truth is a happy thing
For that it makes us joy and sing
For all happiness for all of us
And there you have it
The truth is a plus

Hopes - XII

As times change
We look at the past
Look at the things that didn't last
Some didn't get the time to start
Others made it far
And wished upon a star
But I,
I stayed the same
I didn't change
Not Even for fame
So now, I am as strong as ever
Like Justin Bieber
Never say never
So do what I say
And never give up your dreams
That way you can invent schemes
The schemes of today and tomorrow
The ones that future people may borrow
So use you brain and practise hard
That way we can all share the shard

Amnesia - XIII

Why do i feel so strange?
What the hell is wrong?
What did I change?
Something strange happend
My feelings changed
Like my whole life is now rearranged!
I know it's just me
But I really hope you can see
That I really want things to go back
It's really like i'm going to attack
Someone for something they did
Now open the jar
And lift the lid
I don't know what to say
I don't know what to do
Please help me decide
What, where and who?
What did they do?
I can't remember!
Now help me too!
I want to know!
I want the truth

But I guess I will never find a booth
A booth that could spawn my past
And tell me
Did it ever last?

Time - XIV

As the time has passed
The dawn breaks
A new day
A new way
A way to start over what has been
A time for all that ended
To have a time to begin
A way to restart
A time to do what is wanted
A time to do our part
As time restarts
The things are the same
It will be like this
Every day
Over and over again

Accept "The Fate" - XV

My whole life seems so new
I don't know what to do
I seem to break all I've got
I screw up every single shot
All I do is so undone
I can't seem to find the fun
I don't even care any more
So please help me aid whats sore
My life is just so full of stress
And even my friends could't care less
I really don't care for love
Because I never trust those things above
Above my perfect point of view
But that is where I see you
Lurking from behind my back
Trying to go for attack
But you have somebody by your side
And I don't know where to hide
My feelings are just so blind

I don't even know who to find
I just know my luck has changed
And all that was, is rearranged
Don't think that i am the same
Cause then you only have yourself to blame
I've changed allot through this time
I can't even follow the chime
But I guess my life is better like this
But maybe that is what i'll miss
I hope you can accept the fate
Backing out is way to late

I know I'm right - XVI

Believe my story
I know i'm right
I know i lie
But lets not fight!
But if disbelief is what covers my story
Don't listen
I won't worry
Cause if you are correct
I don't care
I know i'm not perfect
And if i don't share
I won't stare
I won't fight

True Power - XVII

The number of time
My own number alone
The number of prophecy
The number of throne
It is foretold that this is the one
This is what is true
It cannot be undone
It tells me who I am
Without it, I am just a scam
I will follow the path it makes
So that I can use all that it takes
To build it up
Piece by piece

Make it come true
And then release
Release the true power of my 21
More power than The sun

You Are My All - XVIII

We did not have to meet
For I knew what would be A sign from above
And I could see
I could see our friendship grow
Because none of us were afraid to show
Show our true selves to each other
I couldn't even see if I were your brother
But a thing came in the way
I thought it would be fine
You had a boyfriend
You needed your time to shine
But I slowly fell for you
It was something I didn't want
I swore not too
But you are just so unique
In a wonderful way
Like the times I'm tired to go
And you want me to stay
The things you tell me
I have never heard before
But I know you are true
And that makes me sure
That I have fallen for you
It I hope that you see
That I wish that right now
That it could be you and me

I'm gonna miss ya (Full of fear) - XIX

A year is over Things can be new
This that were many Things that were few
This year things changed a lot
I didn't make any thing
Only got one shot

To get things right
To kill the wrong
But Im gonna miss this year
Miss it so strong

I'm gonna miss my first new year love
An how she drowsed me
How she made me dove
How she made me see

I will not forget my first love fight
How I failed
How she was right
I will not forget the times I failed that same girl
But I kept on loving her
Like a hyper squirrel
We fought and we fought
Always with the fight
But we became friends
And made it alright

I will not forget falling for the same new years teen
How I fell for her
Just with one scene
Looking back into her eyes
I could not find any despise
Cause she had me dazing
She was perfect
She was amazing

I will not forget, my first wife
How she loved me
And gave me life
But she left me
For another guy
How she killed me
How she made me die

I will not forget
How I failed so bad
I will not forget being so sad
But Im really glad Cause these people
Always made me bad
Bad enough to tell them I liked them
I really am gonna miss this year

This year was like gem
This year is my favourite year
I'm gonna miss it,
It was Full of fear

Piercing - XX

In my heart
It's always you
You're always there
You're my tattoo
I can't get you off my mind
I like you
You're one of a kind!
Now I can't let you go
You are there
Always stating the show
Making my day
Taking me away
You got me dazing
Just like a dart
You pierced My heart

Me - XXI

I have to tell you
I can't part
With the times we'd spend
And the things we'd start
I can't tell you how much I care
I don't know if I can tell you
I might not dare
You are my moon
You are my sun
A day without you
Is a day that has not begun
A poem to say it all
Look at me
I can't even stand tall
I don't have the guts like you
I can't stand there
And do the things that you do
I hope I can say this loud and clear
I hope I have nothing to fear

As a poem this is the worst
It can't even get the burst
The burst of feelings
That come to me
To help it be
This might actually be my last
The one to end
The terrible past
The poem to sett it all free
A poem to complete me

Palm in Palm - XXII

I may not predict the future
I may not know the past
But I know what to do
To know how long it will last
I have not seen it all
I have not done like you
But I can do things
You cannot do
I know how to treat the loved ones
I know how to be kind
I know how to make them smile
I know what to find
So I don't need help
I don't have to ask
I have done it easily
One simple task
Treat with love
Make them smile
Show them emotions
Love them no mater what style
And you will be rewarded good
No test to ace
No need to pray
You have the grace
Just don't make them sad
Don't ever lie
Don't be an idiot
Don't make them die
Just be your self
It's ok
If they don't like you

Don't stay
Move on and keep motivated
You'll be fine
You're never outdated
You are just fine the way you are Learn what to do
Just erase your scar
Move on
Be yourself
Stay calm
And end up
Palm in palm

Alcohol - XXIII

A bottle stands there
All alone
No home
It can't stand tall
It won't fall
You stand there
Like a beast
With a brain deceased
Hideous and dark
Making dogs bark
A bottle stand there
Fragile and calm
Reaching your palm
Starting it all
Making it fall

Darkness - XXIV

Earth, water, fire or flame
What ever you do

The damage is the same
You can play with danger
You can break the dreams
Just remember
It isn't always what it seems Cast the shadow across the land
Past the ocean
Through the sand
Kill what is never right
Things that are black
Are never bright
My fine dear
Evil is all power
What ever you hear
Now go back to the happy dream
And I will go back where all is black
Where the devil lives
The darkest shack

Past - XXV

Poems of the future
Songs of the past
The things you would write
If this didn't last
You wish it was gone
You wish it all would disappear
You wish you could be done
You are sick of all the fear
You want to go back
You want to live
But the problems of yesterday
Keeps reminding you to give
To give up your future
And make it all down
Never making you smile
Only makes you frown
This is my future
This is my past
These are the things that got forgotten
The things done last

Bloom - XXVI

Make my day
Fly away
Do what you want
Do what you need
I will be here
Like a growing seed
Always waiting for the moment
The moment that I can shout
The moment I will cherish
The moment I will sprout
I will wait here for you
Wait forever
Till time sets us blue
Because when you come back
I will be done
The clouds would have rained
And dried from the sun
Come back only when it's right
Until then
Baby, sleep tight

Hope - XXVII

Where ever you are Where ever you go
I will be here
I will be your show
What ever you say
I will be there
I will stay
Which steps you go
Which ways you take Loving you
Is no mistake
When ever I see you
When ever you leave
You are always there
You make me believe
Who ever is your future
Who ever is your past
I will always hope
Hope for this to last

Stitch - XXVIII

I've been scarred for life
I've been stitched up with lies
You think you can destroy me
Just look at my eyes
You are small
You are dumb
You are feared of many
And loved by some
I now know your truth
Your one way of living
Behind you youth
You fragged my heart
You killed me
And now you think
Think you can see?
You lost it all
You played the bet
You made me fall
No sign of regret
You sucked my life
You didn't care
You made me go back
To all the fear
You didn't hold your one promise
You pierced my heart
But I was wrong
Right from the start

Stay - XXIX

Making time fly
By the speed of light
Until it's allright
Making it go
Is what is what makes us bright
Baby lie here
And please sleep tight
So don't leave
Just please stay put
Even though we might have gotten off on the wrong foot
Going uphill is to damn far away
Baby don't go

Please stay

I Am All of Me - XXX

Let me tell you a story my friend
Of what that starts
And the things that end
How things can start out wonderfully good
And end up
Like it never should Like it always was wrong
Like it was never right
Like the past is grey And future bright
But listen to my words
As I tell the tale
As I make my way
As I sett my sail
I'm ready for more
I'm ready to go
I'm ready to soar
I can be the hero
I can take resistance
I can bloom the flower
I can walk the distance
You can't follow the beat
You can't get your way
For what ever you do
You cannot stay
Earth, water, fire or flame
You live in shame
But I move on
I become new
I become many
I become few
I am what I once became
I am old
But never the same
I am new and I am free
I am...
I am all of me

Tigerboy - XXXI

With pants of red
And top of white
When I see your smile
My day is bright
With hat of green
And hair of black
Ever since we met
I don't need to look back
With lips bright pink
And eyes shining brown
When I see your face
I can never frown
You are a friend I value best
You taught me most
More than the rest
Without you i would not have understood
And things would have been
Like it never should
Thank you for the things you've done
And thank you for the friends we've become

I Wish for Better Times - XXXII

I wish for better times
You know with who Better times with love
Better times with you

Hold me closer
And my hand tight
Stop making me sad
Stop the fight

Why did you let me go?
How did you do it?
I let my feelings show!

But no longer with you
Living with someone new

Love You Ever After - XXXIII

Roses are red, violets are blue
Even though you hate me
I will always love you
Just like romeo said to Juliet:
The best love is without regret
I love you, I love you so
That is why
I can't let you go
I have loved you forever long
I have loved you forever strong
You are the one that makes me smile
I wish you could make it last a while
Look at you now
So sweet and ready
Take a step
Nice and steady

Fair Maiden - XXXIV

My young fair maiden
So sweet and wise
Forever I could stare
Right intro your eyes
And I hope one day
That our lips will meet
Oh that moment
So tender and sweet
But now you've left
My heart confused
Did you say yes
Or were you re-fused?
I know how people
Can make one mad
But even just you say it
It makes me sad
But I know
That I'm one of the few
That is strong enough to say
I love you
And if that is not good enough
I guess I have to grow up
I have to be tough
But please
I hope you see
That I will love you forever

And all eternity

Where I'm At - XXXV

Sometimes i wish you could read
Some times I wish you could hear
Sometimes I want to show you
The things I fear
But I have no fears
I live so calm
I live in peace
And live without harm
I want to show you the things I can do
I want to show you one or two
I want to show you me
I want to show you all
I want to make you rise
Even when you fall
But as the shadow controls
I cannot do what you require
I cannot be what you want
And what I desire
I am incapable of the things you want
But still, you stay there for me
Sometimes I wish I could hear
And I could see
Sometimes I wish I saw the right
Before the wrong
Sometimes I wish for the future
But I will never live strong

Knight of the Wind - XXXVI

I am the night
I am the knight
The forever oth
To make me fight
Fight for whats wanted
Fight for what is needed
Fight for the dead
And for the succeeded
I am the night and day
I am the one that will be
I am the knight of the wind

For all eternity

Never Turn Back - XXXVII

Never turn back
Never look that way
Never go
Never stay
Never be the one left behind
Just remember you are the one
The one of a kind
You will survive
You will stand tall
You will rise
When ever you fall
Just look to the future
Be prepared to attack
Never go there

His World - XXXVIII

It's his World
Were going right
Make Sure you grab on
And hold on tight
Couse it's far
To break the dream
Take the Ticket
To open the scheme
Cause I know
That it will be ok
Walk through the night
And through the open day
Just run
Like the moon is high
Like a big eagle, hawk
Or just a small fly
And see his land
and through the sand
A mighty hero
On an new campaign

He has nothing to lose
But new skils to gain
Cause he is best
He is fast and strong
He makes all right
And turn on all the wrong
Just follow
And make your turn
Drive of the highway
Make the asphalt burn
All that is right
He will battle
Til he wins the fight

Me and You - XXXIX

Since i sett my eyes on you
I've been hypnotised
I don't know what to do
You sett my heart on fire
Please tell me!
What do you require?
I'm sett blind
I don't know what i've forgot
I don't know what to find
Please tell me!
Don't burn me down
I want to live like king
I want you with my crown
We wont need anybody new
It will be tender
And me and you

Time Heals All Wounds - XL

At the start of time
At the break of night
When ever you smile
You make my day bright
But when you are mad
It's all the same
You live with pride
I live in shame

Oh dear please!
I mean no harm
I only want the best
I love your charm
I remember your first hi
But I couldn't live with my self
If this was the last good bye
But sometimes
I don't know what to do
I don't know what to tell you
So I will tell you to stay
Cause I have something to do
I have something to say
I like you, Ok?
I don't expect the other way round
But if I'm wrong
I wont make s sound
I know you like it when I rime
But forever and ever
I can't do it all the time

End - XLI

All things will come to an end
It's not about how long it takes
But the time you spend
If you find the truth before it's right
You might lose it all
Not win the fight
Just don't give up
And prove your power
You are the greatest Every day, Every hour
You are the chosen one
Your future is not foretold
You can die villain or hero
You can die young or old
Just remember your name
And say it out loud
Don't stop shouting
Till you hear the crowd
Don't live like others
You are great
You are the one

To fulfil your fate

Blindfold - XLII

Here's a poem
Believe it's true
Just for you
I made it only
Cause I feel it's right
Because you make me happy
And you make my day bright
I hope I can see more of you
I hope you wish the same
Because I can't believe How close we became
Not long a time
Not long a day
You didn't want me to go
You made me stay
I felt so recognised
I felt so cared
You made me overcome
What ever I feared
Believe it or not
This is how it's now
I don't know what
And I don't know how
But I hope we can build this up
I hope that it will hold
I hope that you can see
Under your blindfold

Next to Me - XLIII

I don't need time
I don't need day
I don't need night
I just need you to stay
Don't leave
I need you now
I need you with me
I don't want you to go
Always I will be there

Be there for you
Be Your help
And bear you through
But you wouldn't let me stay
You drove me of
You pushed me away
But now I need you here
To set me free
Hold me tight
Be there next to me

Going My Way - XLIV

I'm doing all right
I'm on my way
Facing every problem
Day by day
I'm just fine
I could't care less
I keep away
From all the stress
I'm forever fine
I'm just OK
I'm doing all right
I'm on my way
I don't need to go right
I can go my fate
In any situation
Smile not hate
But that is just me
A can't tell for you
But if you wonder
You can figure it too

Change - XLV

Everything changes
You can't go back
No matter the strength
No matter the lack
What ever was past
Will never be done
What is fate
Can never be fun

If it's good
If it's bad
If it's funny
If it's sad
What ever it is
Don't look to the past
It's a reason
That it didn't last

Learning - XLVI

We all keep learning as we go
Don't be afraid
Let your feelings show
It's not awkward
It is not blue
It's the best
It is true
Believe me as I go
Believe me as I say
Believe my movements
Believe it's ok
We all can have a future
We can all move by the light
We can all do wrong
But we can all do right
We all have faults
We can't all be great
But we can all do better
We can all change fate
Don't think that I am great
I can too do wrong
But when ever I do it
I become more strong
It builds my character
It make one true
It can happen to me
And it can happen to you
Now make it true
Go out there
And make you

Maybe - XLVII

I don't know if it's the best
Or the right thing to do
But how things are going
I have to tell you
I can't go living in the shadow
I can't go living in shame
I can't go living in the past
Because it all would be the same
Theres no way to stop it
There's no way going back
I can't stop going wrong
I have to get on track
But you don't seem Like you could like it
You don't seem like me
You don't seem like its anything
Maybe that's why it cannot be Maybe I'm crazy
Maybe I'm wrong
Maybe I'm weak
Maybe I'm strong
But i don't know!
I don't have a clue
I don't know If you could ever
Think it could be me and you

Try - XLVIII

I don't know if I'm right
I don't know if I'm wrong
I don't know how you feel
Only that my love is strong
I know I'll hesitate
I can't tell you now
I would tell you later
I just don't know how
But one day
The choice will be made
The one will be written
And the plan will be laid
So I will go now
Once an forever more
Past the forest
And upon the open land
But i will be back

In one day or another
If not for you
For a lover

The Fear - XLIX

I conquered the fear
Of being rejected
Better than expected
Why was I afraid?
It went so well
Why was I afraid?
I knew I could tell!
It went so well
It went so fine
By the shining in her eyes
By the shining of mine
But I guess
I have learned for now
I guess I finally Know how
So I will go
She makes me fly
But I hope so dearly
For never a goodbye.

Heroic - L

The times you wish you were the hero
The times you wish you were the star
The times you don't longer need to follow
But become who you are
But listen to my words
As I tell the tale
As I make my way
As I sett my sail
Some love is meant to die
Some love is meant to become
But my love is meant to be given
And this love is meant to be done
But bloom my heart
As it would never stay
Just bloom my heart

Like I never was away
Now make me right
Or make me wrong
It's your choice
No mater weak or strong
Just remember
You can be the villain
For all the crimes you do
So sett it free
Into the blue
I don't need time
I don't need day
For all I use
Is time to pray
Pray that all
Will be ok
Pray that you
Will always stay
But even though am left alone
And even though I'm sorry
It's always the same story
Just remember
That what ever you say
Or what ever you do
I will be there
Like your tattoo
No, we can't all be heroes
Some of us must fall
But we will come back stronger
As heroes us all

Valentine - LI

Roses are red
Violets are blue
I've written a poem
I've written it for you
It's not about
All the things you get
And it's not about
All the goals you set It's about love
And sharing the joy
Sharing the love
Either girl or boy

The question is not
What is yours to get
And the question is not
If it will be regret
It's about valentine
The years true love
The one days power
To stare the stars above
No need for gifts
No need to stress
No need to hurry
Only you can impress
But it's a flower for me
Or a poem for you
Cause roses are red
And violets blue
No need to wonder
No need to be mine
Just a simple question
Will you be my valentine?

The Same - LII

You might think I'm weird
You might think I'm strange
But what ever you say
I will never change
I will walk my way
I will stay the same
Will be my self
For glory or shame
You can't form me
I'm not clay
I will not be as you
I will just walk away
Cause I know who I am
I know what to do
I know what to say
To Get though
Don't need time
Don't need space
It's not a challenge
It's not a race
You have all the time
To make it good

But make sure
It's the way it should

Over - LIII

I lost track
Where did you go?
I lost my senses
You didn't know
I miss you
But you don't see
That you
Were all of me
Part of the life I lost
Part of my past
Part of the cost
The cost my sanity
The one that I grew
You are one of many
But for me
One of the few
I don't know what
I don't know how
But there is something I must do
To make you bow
Because you are gone
And must live
With the though of you
And that I must give
I must give up
There is nothing to do
Nothing for me
To ever get over you

Monkey Kiss - LIV

You made me laugh
When I made the choice
To get on closer
To stop your voice
When we first kissed
It was like I fell
But you picked up
So I could not tell

If you liked it or not
So I said: " what the hell!"
We'll give it another shot
So I kissed you again
And it lasted eternal
It made my brain rumble
And my heart infernal
You made it easy
You made it good
You made me believe
That it was something I should
So I did it
I did it with pride
And now my feelings
Have no need to hide
So maybe
It was to funky
But if it was
We'll blame it on monkey

Solid Ice - LV

Past the ocean
Over the ice
Everybody
Has their price
I've found yours
But you won't find mine
So you will die easily
But I will be fine
Oh, the damage you've done
It's all so bad
Just look at all the people
That you've sent home sad
But to make you cry
I'll just need time
It's not that hard
I'll just be your mime
So don't you tell me
I have no heart
You made it start
But you just go on
And do what you do best
Being the worst

And being the pest
But I can see
What is wrong and right
And for love
I attack with all might
But you just go on
Like what you do is nice
When you really have the heart
Of rock solid ice

Strike - LVI

The big open night
One open past
One thing became
The other didn't last
I don't miss you
I cannot lie
But at least i have a reason
And at least tell why
You treated me
Like you didn't care
You make all the people
Full of fear
Now go away
And live as you like
But don't come screaming
When you hit your strike

Without - LVII

Sometimes i want to be seen
Sometimes I want to be alone
But when you're near
You make me feel like home
And when it all is lost
And there is no going back
You must understand
That I will attack
There is no stopping it
There is no end
I just want to see you
But no longer as friend
We are so close

At least we were
So please come back
And always stay here

Great - LVIII

My life is great
Nothing is wrong
You might say that
But are you really strong?
Can you stand up
And defend what's yours?
Don't forget that everyone
Has their own chores
But if you don't do them
And end up crying sad
Don't come and tell me
That you have it so bad
Because I have been there
I have made my faults
I have climbed the mountain
I have hammered my bolts
But I have survived
And you can too
It's not that hard
I'll show you
But you must not back down
And you must stay with me
You must stay here
Till you know you can see
No, your life might not be great
You might get it all right
But what ever it is Remember to make the fight

Fix - LIX

I have a problem
That I cannot fix
I have an answer
But I will mix
You won't know what to do
You won't know what to play
You have no words

After you've heard what I have to say
Listen to my words
Listen to the tricks
Listen as I make good
What I couldn't fix

Finish - LX

I have made my fortune
I have found it all
I know how to rise
And when to fall
But I have learnt so much
I don't know how to connect
But I finally know how
And no longer fear reject
I have motivation
I have no fear
Just you wait
And listen what you can hear
Because I am not done
I will continue
To make it all
And I will pull through
What ever it was
I am here
All because
Now I have it all
You made it go
Now I'm here
To finish the show

Luna - LXI

You are wonderful
Yes it is so true
You are incredible
That is why i chose you
Your magical ways
There couldn't been an other
Your lovely stays
We are made for each other
There is no understanding

You can't conquer love
What ever you believe in What ever is above
For me, there is you
No other girl
You are my treasure
My deep sea pearl
Now, go to sleep
And I will stare
At the moon so bright
I will gentle you down
And tuck you inn right
Now lie down
And I will do the same
Let's stare up at Luna
Because that is her name
And I shall sleep
Right next to you
And help you go
And pull you through
I will stay
Or take you with me
I will take us a place
Where we always will be free
Now I will go to sleep
And you will do the same
And we shall stare up at Luna

Saliva - LXII

It's all so sick
I can't bear the thought
Of what I took
And of what I brought
But I guess it was all away
I guess I was meant to be downed
But what ever you said
You could not be found
Doesn't matter
How much you say
Cause the saliva is killing me
What ever is ok
Where ever you stay
Cause the saliva is making me

Go to where I have never been
To places I can't find
To places one of a kind
But never take me back
So I get sick
Like my soul is killed
Like it's all a magic trick
Now I cannot stay
I must go
Far away
But what ever
I come to be
The saliva is controlling me

Apocalypse - LXIII

A solid plan
A mystic rhyme
A travel through space
A journey through time
To a whole new place
An Island of sun
A ship of ice
It has all just begun
You won't believe
Until you've seen what can be
Oh, but you will find it
Just you wait and see
And the damned will rise
Believe my soul
But to defeat them all
That is our goal
Infinite will come
As you damned the dead
So take care of your soul
As it gently is shred
So be prepared
I'm telling you all
Be afraid
Cause the world will fall

The Circle - LXIV

Maybe yesterday is dark

Maybe tomorrow is light
Maybe it's something wrong
Or maybe something's right
I don't know
I never will
But do know,
That time is not still
It will change
Believe my thought
Receive what is given Give what is brought
It's all a cycle
A circle of living
A circle of life
The circle of giving
And all will end
But it will come back
Either of defence
Or even attack

Era - LXV

As time goes by
I let new dreams in
I let times go
And days begin
Some are good
Some are bad
But for all the times that were good
They can't relate to the sad
I live so happily
All by the sun
As time passed
My era begun

Cheating Dream - LXVI

An ice castle rises
The snow will fall
A new dream sets
Controlling it all
What is so wrong?
It all seems so real
Even though the ground might be red

And the sky teal
I did survive
I made the dream cheat
Although it only brought me
Closer to my feet
I all seemed so real
But it was all fake
Because I did fall down
But I didn't break

The Man - LXVII

Tied down to the chair
Tied down by the man
You though it would be fine
And go by your plan
But it drastically failed
You ended up wrong
What you thought was weak
Stood up to be strong
The man doesn't listen
The man doesn't care
You fought so little
When you had it all to fear
And now you want to go back
But there is no back
You have to let go
You have to close down
You have to go slow
You don't have a choice
You have to listen
Listen to the mans voice
There is no end
For the pain you will get
If you think otherwise
You will regret
So go away
And never turn back
To where ever you go
I want you to stay
The man said it
The man made it
You can't say other
You can't stay other
You won't be a sister

You won't be a brother
Now go away
Go away
And stay

The Dream - LXVIII

This part is new
It has changed a soul
More powerful by thought
Than to be seen as coal
It is not bleak
It's as light as the sky
But before it became
It was all a dark lie
It was only encouraged
By all the falls
It was never broken down
By gentle calls
It grew more
Every day
You could try to kill it
But it would still stay
But itself got hold
It figured what It had done
What he had changed
What he had become
He changed once more
Back to the light
Finally it shined
And it did shine bright
It was finally nice
It was finally free
That shadow
Turned out to be me

Lidophobia - LXIX

Why is it dark
When the sun shines bright?
Why is it wrong
When it is all so right?
I Cannot move
I Cannot stay

I Want to be here
But want to go away
When it's all so easy
It is all so hard
When lightning strikes
You'll get hit by a shard
The damage is short
But the pain is forever
It feels like it's here
Not hit me, never
When all is wrong
When the moon is high
You cannot go back
And you can't walk by

Stitch; Forever - LXX

Now it's time
I'm done with the Past
I will reset my faults
I will make it last
This is my future!
I can change it all
I can start over
Forget my fall
I can now be the hero
I can be all of me
Why was I so dumb
That I did not see
That the only thing that was stopping
Was me
But all is gone
The game has begun
Time to go away
Back to the sun
The future that was told
The past that was blue
The ignorance of a human
That would destroy his few
The one that he cared for
The ones that made him glad
He turned on them
He turned bad
But I am done
I have grown so strong

I now know that they were right
About me being wrong
Now I will walk
Like it was all a glitch
I will walk,
For I am Stitch

The Wish - LXXI

The sun goes down
Ones eyes close
The achveiments he gained
And the paths he chose
While the grass grows green
And the leaves bloom too
Because what he as dreamt
Has now become true
But he wish it was gone
He wish it was fake
He did not know the cost
And what it would take Pay the price
For all the mad
For what is good
Can also be sad
Now, as the sun goes down
He wish he was strong
One last shine
As all turns wrong

Memoria - LXXII

She was a lonely girl
He was a longing guy
The story of them both
Made me wonder why
Why would a poor guy like him
Ever fall for someone Whom he doesn't understand
Ever from the start
When she first touched his hand
What would become None did know
But it has to be special

When you make someone go
It was such a sight
For what ever she said
He would fight
But she never saw him
He could just admit her
Charge her for theft
Because she made him believe
She made it all start
But from that moment
She stole his heart

Through the Fire and Flames - LXXIII

But what ever
I'll make it last
Make it forever
Till time stops
Till the hell breaks loose
What ever the decision
That is what I would choose
I have no past
So I can only win
Don't make it lose
As time will begin
For the fire will stay
The fire will flame
The fire is forever
It will stay the same
So as I
Quit the games
I know that i'll survive
Through the fire and flames

Stronger - LXXIV

As the poems of my past
Would be reclaimed
I don't know what for
I can be blamed
But for the better
That's all I can see

For the never and ever
Forever was me
Now,
As I work harder to achieve more
What ever did I come here
To retrieve for
I don't even know where to start
Or believe for
But all I know
For me to go for
Is never to stop the show for
So work it harder now
And do what I came for
But remember
It's never what I'd done for Make me stronger
Make it worth a while Cause what ever it was
It's just a big pile
Of things that I never saw for
And forever would Never go for
So lists to my worst as I show for What ever and ever
That I would never bow for
It is my trick
My little piece of magic
Make it walk to peace
Now fuck it like it tragic
You know your part
So god damn play it well
Now go pamper up!
Your still in hell
Wait until you've grown up
That is when i'l first tell
So get all ready
And get your self a bone
Just be ready when all is fallen
And you lose your throne
Now all is ready
Work it harder now
I don't care if you do
But stand up and take a bow

Return - LXXV

It was all fake
It was all a trick
I guess I lost my change
And didn't get to pick
I had to believe
I had no choice
I had to listen
To the singlehanded voice
So tell me,
Why would you make me believe?
When the truth is What I wanted to receive
Now the game is played
You faked it all
When I wanted to rise
You made me fall

Live Life - LXXVI

So, how am i gonna
Make my life live long
If i can't even
Make it work strong
Don't tell me
That i work wrong
The reason for treason
Doesn't work like a life song
Now, as my world
Is turned up right down
I can't do faster, than the bright crown
Now, as I live my life all around over
As I receive the retrieve of you
Taking cover
Do it faster
Make it strong
Make me sadder than the cadaver of
The work wrong
Now, it's time to wrap up this shot stand
Work it harder
Just go to Disney land
It's probably where you come from
I have some cotton candy, would you like some?
But now I'm done
Return the past

Make it stronger
Blow up in the blast

Courage or Fear - LXXVII

Past, future
Then or now
Which and when
Who and how Believe or fall
Go or stay
Be with me
Or go away
Chaos or peace
Evil or good
Many for the better
But never what I should Light or dark
Sun or moon
What ever will happen
Will happen soon
Live or die
Crazy or sane
Conquer the fear
Or feel the pain
Dawn or dusk
Night or day
I've heard it all
I know what to say
Hero or villain
Courage or fear
It will be OK
Because you are here

Flower Jack - LXXVIII

Dream what you want Dream while you can
The dream is not forever
The dream of span
For the dream gives one hope
The dream makes love go
It makes people do things
And make feelings show

Dream now,
Dream for love
Dream and pray
To the gods above
Love forever
Love for the dreams
Go forever
Forget what it seems
The dream floats by
Like a boat hitting ice
For what ever good
Will always have a price
But for eternal love
Ones life becomes black
Crossing all the tears
For wanting it back
But, going back
It is not the way
For in your heart
I will always stay
What ever I am!
Flower or jack!
Remember in you heart
I will always come back

Eyes - LXXIX

Like a deep blue ocean
Like a swim in the sea
It's like the moon is new
When you look at me
Your eyes,
They hypnotise mine
When you look me in the eyes
I must draw the line
It's unbelievable
It's like a swim in the sea
Looking at you
Looking at me

One Word - LXXX

That one Word
Sentence of the time

To set a rhyme
That one kiss
To make all the thrill
With the fair of will
That one time
When all went good
Where it went like it should
But why wait?
For the time to come
When the fairest of heart
Is believed by some
And why not hear
When the stars shine bright
Just for us tonight
And for that time
To finally break
Do what is told
To what ever you'll make
Now for tonight
The shine of all
Just for tonight
The rise of the fall
But not to worry
Don't come undone
Do not fear
Or even run
It will be over
I trust my word
Don't trust anyone
For anything you've heard
The time of bad
The time of good
Now, it all ends
The only it could

Save My Fall - LXXXI

Shadows everywhere
The darkness is all around
It's covering my senses
I can't hear a sound

But I don't want to hear
I cover up more
I guess you have to act now
Don't wait before
But the shadows cover my soul
The darkness fills my heart
There is no end
To this start
The only end is the impossible
You wouldn't care a bit
You wouldn't care to mend
You would only hit
Because that's how Darkness works
You should know that
One person of all
But I guess the caring
To save my fall

Shadow to Light - LXXXII

Bring me the horizon
Bring me the pawn
Bring me the fire
Bring me the dawn
Burn down poverty
Burn down all
Burn down the past
Burn down the fall
Shine on all
Shine on me
Shine on her
Shine on the free
Close the past
Close to the next
Close to the horizon
Close to the text
The text of power
The text of might
The text to bring Shadow to light

All Hail Shadow - LXXXIII

As songs cry
As poems weep
The ones wild fire
Goes into the deep
Now is time
Now is the day
Where all that was
Will go away
But no
That was not how time did
It gave us hope
But the truth it hid
This one day
Has changed the strong
We've been searching for it
For way to long
All hail shadow
Ones time rise by all
When all things died
We tied the rising brawl
Now has time
To stop the go
Now has time
To start the show
Things will end one day
But I did what I could
And I will always stay!

Scream - LXXXIV

Cry all you want
Scream all you need
Hear my voice crack
And see my tongue bleed
The city of evil
A town of the dead
Just go stab my heart
Chop off my head
I'm done now
Committed crime
Go back to the hell
Go back in time
I will miss it all
But you won't care

But il have to go back
To all the fear
No wait
I've been here before
I've spoken the language
I have sett the one lore
Because that is simply What makes us dream
But this is it
Is what makes me scream

Jealisophobia - LXXXV

Now you're gone
What the hell do I do?
I can't remember
I have no clue
Time has been
I am weak
But you are strong
I will try my best
I will try to move on
But the fact is so big
Now that you are gone
I have no place to go
I have to life to live
You have taken all
That I have to give
But I will be fine
After some time
Now that you're gone

Amaranth; Forever - LXXXVI

The truth is so hidden
The truth is so bold
But that is why i look back
To the memories we hold
The moon is still there
The love never disappeared
When it all ended
It was with what I feared
You told me otherwise!

You told me a lie
But I guess you were afraid
To say goodbye
But so was I
But it was for the best
I hope I didn't got lost
Like all the rest
But I had to do it
To take a stand
Cherish the one
That hides Amaranth in a land
So far away
I was all of me
But it was your heart
That could not see
I was the hero
You were the one
But now I'm the villain
And we are done
The flower bloomed
The stitches been laid
While you were happy
I was afraid
My valentine
My sweet monkey kiss
How could you betray me?
Treat me like this?
How is it that the pain is forever
But action is now?
For I will always know why
But wonder how
But that is how I chose to live
You chose it too
But I no longer live
Because I lost you
The love that you lost
Is far worse
Than what I lost
And what you set on curse
A short start
An everlasting end
The love of first sight
Fading to a friend
But that friend
I don't want to be
I want to forget

I want you to see
That what you meant to me
Is not to be thrown around
Because every time I smiled
You threw me to the ground
But it is over now
No final kiss
The tears will go down
All because of this

Light of Blue - LXXXVII

It is time
I am done
My era is over
My plan has began
You believe
Of what you see
I believe
What is all of me
A new time
A never fading rain
The sun is hidd
Behind all the pain
But I have rissen
I have come back
Not for you
Never for that
I am done with you
I am done with all
But the used ones
They bring light
They give the motivation
For one to fight
But as I am forced to move
As I walk into my past
Did never last
Because Turing back
For me, is the only way
Because I oversaw
That they where the ones to stay
But cherish the one
The one that you oversaw
Because you will be shocked

You will have awe
So can you see all of me?
Walk right into
My mystery
Step inside and pray for light
Pray right now
Pray for it is right
Because the light of blue
Can only be seen by few

Fire Woman (You're to Blame) - LXXXVIII

The love found
The love lost
The loves price
The happiness' cost
Fire woman
Fire man
Flame of passion
Fires what it can
But sometimes
The flame need a little rest
It needs to try out something new
It needs a test
And if it just tried something out
That doesn't stop fire
From telling about Fire is mental Fire is free
Fire woman can be Anyone for me
But because some are gone
Doesn't change the fact
It changes what I do
But not the act
Fire woman
You are to blame
For if I continue
I am the same
But it is not like that
You kept me sane
But you made me play
And brought me pain
Now I need to go
And you have to let me

And so does elements of other
Because the fire gives us power
That we all need each other
Fire woman you're to blame
You made me crazy
Now I want to be the same

? - LXXXIX

What is a cat
Or a dog?
Is it for light of blue
Or the holy frog?
And I promise my dear
That with ignorance
You have nothing to fear

Rain Clouds - XC

Rain falling down
Right on the solid roof top
No sun to make the day
No moon to make it stop
Now the time has come
Now the day is here
Cause with the rain atop
I have all to fear
But it will go away
Like all rain clouds do
But it has all just begun
All because of you

Burn - XCI

White is black
Black is white
Right is wrong
And wrong is right
Nothing fills the hole
Deep inside your heart
Maybe where it stops
Is not where to start?

But how can one continue
The life one used to live
When all hope is lost
And it's all you have to give
The questions of life
The lessons to learn
The things you would forgive
This one can
It will always do
For this fire burns
Alone, because of you

Soon - XCII

The goal reaches it's limit
The achievement is soon complete
The score is soon broken
There is nothing more to beet
The past is all that's left
The future has yet to come
Now for the last time
It counts down to some
Some small numbers
Some small words
Some little flowers
Or some wonderful birds
It is soon the end
So be prepared
The pressure is on
To all you feared

Stetton - XCIII

I will conclude
The future of my past
You were the one I left
The one I thought would never last
Now is time
To sort out my dreams
To sort out my time
Now Amaranth is my rhyme
Bloom the stitch
Make him rise

It will make the time
All worth the price!
But stitch will not be played with
He is a name of the one
Who will be set at once
By the almighty sun
Doubt your heart
You will hit hard
You will need your power
To protect the shard
The one you left uncared more
The only one
You would die for Amaranth
He is finally here
With stitch on his side
You will be struck with fear

Treasure - XCIV

Through the tight jungle
The wind in the sky
A wild new venture
The spirit in your eye
Your search for power
The power of it all
Your great adventure
For the mighty to fall
Now the time has come
For the action to take hand
For now is the time
To look for where to land
Hidden in the forest
Lost in waters sea
Forgotten in time
Found and finally free
The jewel of life
The the master emerald bound
All these mighty treasures
Just waiting to be found

For Without You - XCV

Look back time

One year has passed
But the though about it
Will always last
You started it all
You make me cry
You made me fall
But in the end
You are the hero!
You are the star!
You made me start
And made me go far
I have you to thank
My dear friend
For without you
It would have had to end
For without you
It would not have begun
For without you
I would never have done
All the things I've done
Now I thank you
I thank you so much
For making it true

Addiction - XCVI

As the trees grow
As the time sets in
As the bottle drops down
The perfect bottle gin
You cannot stop
Your hands shaking bright
What you know is wrong
Is still what feels right
The smoke of cigarettes
The fire of ones house
The drinking of whiskey
Undressing of a blouse
You know its wrong
But where to go?
When without it
Your life feels slow
You know what is wrong
Life has the perfect prediction
The final thought

For your everlasting addiction

Amaranth - XCVII

A fallen angel
A far awau land
Taking the step
To go closer to her hand Sitting still
For a response
When you wanted gold
But all ended was bronze
The fallen angel
Revived by man
Taken from heaven
And done what can
To get back to her land
The land of the sky
One's change like this One can't go by
But to save an amaranth
One needs strength
Because one love
Does not hold for the length
One needs passion
To hold the sacred one
For what time you have been given
Has almost just begun
You must bless it
Bless it with all heart
Not after the end
But from the start
Never stop
Not even for glory
Not ever
To end this story

Sakasama Ni - XCVIII

Upside down
Sakasama ni
The one sentence
To let it be
The blue book

That could would be the one
The one book
That took all and begun
The green highway of love
The road of fire
The one book
That I thinks would take me higher
But it stayed alone
It never got any way
The death note took over
It lost it's hope to stay
But it is there
Never to be forgotten
Never to be lost
But sadly it will rotten
Because this is how it works
With the things without care
Because of now going far
That is the one feared fear

All Four - XCIX

The one I hated
The one that cared
The one made it start
The one that I feared
All the four
Once was a vision
Only two on them
Became the decision
The decision
To change the past
To change it all
To make it last
One pierced my heart
One was a Memory
One's name was luna
The other made me free
But all the four
Made me need the note
For each of them
Had something I wrote
But one of them
Got swept in time
The others made it

And got their rhyme
For one was my fair maiden
The other made me bloom
One was named luna
And the other made doom
Only four Could make one see the light
For only these four Can make what's right
Luna the Amaranth
Fair Maiden of Time
The knight of the wind
The mystic Mime
All the four
For eternity
All the four
My mystery

The Testament - C

My knights sitting ready
My worriers prepared
When all comes to this
It is all what you feared
How did it come to this?
How did my fate go by?
All I know It's as
The godly heavens die
Now my soldiers go
With so little fight
Now It all could up
Now it all to be right
Through the straight pass of suffering
The martyrs even trod,
Their feet upon temptation,
Their faces upon God.
The martyrs don't stop
They go forever more
They fight for all the good
They fight through all the sore
Don't try to bloom the flower
Don't try to stitch the lies
The villains evil power
Can see through spiritus eyes
The hero is no longer here

The villain is all that lives
Though my solders power
Can right what ever gives
But no longer here
It's all fairy tales
There is no dwarves or elvs
Only women and males
This life has just started
This war has just begun
My time is finally here
A testament is done

Afterlife

2012

Avoiding death by living another life.

Heaven Seems So Near - CI

Love brought us here
Right back to where we belong
But i thought it would be right
And continue to make us strong
Help me!
You made me want to go back
But you know in your heart
That I cannot do that We followed the moon
And here we are
One as a villain
The other as a star
Everything
Has started again
From being unknown
To being your friend
And from this part
I have only one path to fear
I want to leave now
But heaven seems so near

Here Comes the Sun - CII

Here comes love
Here comes the sun
For what was lost
Has once again begun
The fire woman
The memory
The fight for amaranth
Is now once free
For the darkness has left
The monsoon has dissapered
For I let go
Of what ever I feared
Here comes the sun
And it is shining bright
For Luna is back
Back to what's right

What Will It Do? - CIII

What will time do
When it sets us apart
What will love say
When in an end it would start?
I do not know
What ever it will bring
For what was winter
Has gone to summer from spring
It's like it's bloomed
It's like it restarted
For I knew that is was wrong
When we first parted

Love - CIV

Love is patient
Love is kind
But the heart of en inpatient
Can make it hard to find Love is tender
Love is sweet
And the love of the moment
Can sweep one of his feet
The power is boundless
The power is etarnal
Love can make your soul burn
But your heart infernal
Keep loving your love
For it can true love be
But don't consentrate to hard
Or you will ignore what others see
For love does not care
For what all others desire
For if the love is yours
Only love will require
For love is fearless
Love cannot be described
For love is the one free drug
That cannot be prescribed
Love is amazing
Love is never fake
Love can give life
As well as it can take

Once Again - CV

Like a train moving forward
Like a cloud floating by
Everything changes
And I do wonder why
Why does the things turn good?
How could it not be bad?
How did it all go better?
Why didn't I turn up sad?
It's always how it ends
It always ends in tears
But then how can this
Be opposite of my fears?
It became what I wanted
It didn't end like the rest
I made the fortune better
But I made the dream best!
For the knight of the wind
Has finaly returned
Stitch, his name
And the knightship he has earned
Foe or friend
This is the start
Of what I thought would end

The Dancing Dead - CVI

The dead dancing
The dead walking once again
For what the dead was
Was only his friend
The dead overcame him
The dead changed his heart
The dead made him forget
Gave him a new start
The dead gave him a better life
Or so as he thought
For their cheap tricks and games
Were the only thing he bought
He was hipnotized
The dead took him back
For now he has joined
What he once would attack

The dead dancing
Celebrating their gain
For now he has joined
Now he will feel the pain
For loved ones
Is the deads only cost
Dreams you will get!
But love will be lost
Death is hate
Life is love
Death is hell
The dead once again taken a soul
The dead once again brought pain
But he will change!
For he will change their gain!
Their gain will be lost
Their gain will be a loss
Away from his heart
And so long a boss
But for love
He will do all the right
For he is the hero
He will fight
Love will always be great Love will always be put first
For the dancing dead is bad
For the dancing dead is worst
The dead dancing
The dead walking forever more
The dead dancing lost
Just like before

Hapiness - CVII

Forever blue
A new bright star
One old, too close
One new, too far
The dream of happiness
The fear of being down
The dream of days with smile
The fear of a frown
Now a day
Then a night

The begining of war
The end of a fight
Forever the love
Till the end of my days
Forever the love
Always...

Basics - CVIII

As dark times settle
As back clouds float in
For when old paths meet
A new era begins
The era of monkeys
The dawn of the fish
For the time of the hour
Has come for your wish
And if you are not ready
Your wish will still come true
For that is not decided by me
It is decided by you
So when the tears come
And when the night is dark
When the wolves howl
And when the dogs bark
That is when it has come
That is when the time is near
That is when you forget your instincts
And when all is your fear
So when your love is gone
And when your life is at end
That is when
You see who is your friend
And that one true friend
Is your loneliness alone
For all feelings
Are like carvings on stone
The stay here forever
They don't go away
For when they are lost
Always they will stay

Over the Hills - CIX

Over the hills
Across the sea
What would he become
And what would be
Are what would be asked
In the distant past
But why do we wonder
Upon things that last?
Why oh why
Do we suffer pain
When we never even see
A slight view of gain
When the world turns
When the time does tick
That is when we wonder
What choices we must pick
For we can only pick one
There is no other choice
For in a humans heart
There is only one voice
We cannot all learn
Not from what others see
For those are the things
That a few can only be
But now I say
That power can be found
For our existence is free
But only for the unbound
So over the hills
And far away
That is the place
That we all want to stay

Third - CX

The clouds were forming in
One December day
When all was nice
When the bad was away
We talked that day
Just like any other
But that day I realised
We needed each other!
But that's just a memory
That was our past

And in the future
It went up in a blast
But when my honey lost momentum
And the bills were piling high
That's when the light had finally faded
From the apple of her eye
That is how it is
That is how it was Memoria,
I'm here because
Of what you made
That one December day
What you said
To make me stay
Make my feelings for you
Never go away
I called it love
You called it foreplay
The joke is not funny
The joke is on me
For I am the one
That did not see That Memoria
The 3rd one of the four
Was the one
That I would beg for more

Second - CXI

When poems first started
When romance first begun
That was when I was the moon
And you were the sun
We were so different
But yet so alike
For that late night
I hit my strike
Your love turned to hate
And my love turned sad
When I cried my eyes to tears
While you still were mad
I said I was sorry
Yet the mistake was yours
Because you were to jealous
To finish your chores!

You did not inspect
You simply said I lied
But still I was the one that was evil
But yet the one that cried
And still you are in my heart
You are still one of the four Because of what we finished
I wanted more
Because you simply gave up
I continue to look
But forever the time went
And forever it all took My sweet fair maiden
You are still there
But upon you I laid
My promise to swear

The X

2012 - 2014

Wind - I

I said my sorrows
I said my pain
I built it up
And grew my grain
Like corn on a field
And like the wind in the sky
The sun bright shining
And the clouds floating by
For the years good harvest
Rain clouds are a great need
For it is what will make
The food that will feed
Now it is ready
Now in the harvest's eye
For now the wind is now blowing

Memory Tree - II

Wild men chopping
Down on all the free
Chopping down memories
Like it was all a tree
Where all once stood
There is nothing but dust
For what was important
Was destroyed by lust
By somebody's ego
By somebody's own gain
For what the cutting brough
Was nothing but intolerable pain
Where memories once lied
Now is in ruins and ash
For where the love was gained
Is now turned into scrap and trash
Where he first touched her lips
Where they both remember back
Where they both lied down
Where their past will always track
Is now a place they despite
Where they cry in pain
Where it shined in the sun
But now it shutters in rain

The Rain - III

Living in the palace
Where it is all in place
Living in the rain
Living in grace
Where all is fine
Where we wait
For the time
To come back
To the reality
That we once shared
Back to the past
And back to what we fared
The rain
Pouring down
It's where you left it
Left your crown
You went away
Away to the place
Of the places I could not stay
So I stayed here
I stayed in the rain
In shame and grace
In tears and pain
But that is what I wanted
Wanted all along
Going back to the sun
And staying strong
But I knew in my heart
That it would not last
For an eviction of future
Cannot resolve the past
For as I was ignoring the future
As I was ignoring the rain
I was ignoring the flashbacks
And i was ignoring the pain

Nuzlocke - IV

Random people
New worlds to explore
Because what was expected
Was needed for more
But the unexplored

Is as deadly as the thought
Because what a challenge
That timed what you caught
As you even walk forward As your thoughts never turn
As you recover from your bruises
As you make the world burn
For what you desire
For what you once need
Is what the nuzlocke wants
And what the inspiration feeds
For random as it may be
For tasks of higher rate
The nuzlocke chooses desire
The nuzlocke chooses fate

The Dark (Amnesia II) - V

As the past follows in
As the dark flows back
As the screams go wider
As the darkness attacks
Amnesia razing bleak
A knife cutting through
As the blood goes to the floor
He goes looking for you!
For as long as I don't remember
I can't live like that I have to move forward
And never turn back!
For when in the dark
When it's all around
The amnesia is heard
But still without a sound
A man in black
A doctor in white
An actor with beauty
And a future so bright
But the doctor was evicted
And the director was cut
For as soon as it was done
His world was shut
Once again amnesia
Once again my friend
For the next time
I will descend!

The Librarian Secret - VI

A true past
An adventure once ended
One that was retrieved
The one that was befriended
For as long as the past goes Back to before the book
Back when times were simple
Where it was what it took
And love, was as true as first sight
Where love was as floating
As a shining stars light
That is where it was begun
The past that's future is now
This is where it got Through all the what and how The secret
Of The Librarian Bird
The secrets so hidden
It can no longer be heard
But two still remember
For the force will bring them back
For what he once desired
Was what she once would lack
The one first night
Where the broadcast went viral
Where they first intertwined
And their love learned the spiral
The second day met again
Where their paths was crossed once more
Where the spark was ignited
And the sadness was poor
But the days were dark
And the time went blue
For he thought they would never Ever make it through
Through the spirals end
Where he could get desire most
For the Bird was his maiden
And the past was his host
They traveled far and wide
Cried sorrow like a newborn
But the night is always darkest
Just before the dawn
And the night was dark

And they met once more
This time the love
Was no longer sore
The love they shared
Come together at last
For that one final night
To end their past
Sleep once again
God of things above
For the time has come
For the joy to all love
The past now future
The past of the bird
The true adventure ended
The spirit now is heard

The Mountains - VII

Running at speeds
Unknown to mankind
Searching the mountains
For what one cannot find
A wide quest
A fearsome beast
Untamable creature
Dangerous at least
Running for your life
Jumping across the land
Turning water into steam
And rocks into sand
A fire in a flask
The only thing that's warm
The only thing to make you survive
The endless shipwreck storm
Endless suffering
But a bright shining light
One firefly put to rest
And one to join the fight

The Heat - VIII

Sutring cold
One winter seat
The fire in the flask

Is all the heat
But don't cry
For it will all go by plan
For any girl in the way
I will be your man
No matter what
The X will lead through
It will bring you me
And bring me you

Paths - IX

It is in all we see
It is in all we know
But we can't all decide
What is the right path to go
Some may offer
The life of the gray
Some may differ
And lie to stay away
But when two paths collide
In the moonlight and snow
What paths to chaos
And what paths to flow?
And what if a robin
Mysteriously flies by
Would it be a hello
Or would it be goodbye?
If so much pain
Would lead to this
Then the answer to the question
Is no simple kiss
For a kiss is a path
In which a lover must stand
But the fighter doesn't have to
He can take her hand
And they can live in peace
And they can live in grace
But is that really where
The soldier can take place?
What ever the answer is
It will not be liked or famed
What ever the answer is
It will be locked and framed
For a despicable answer

And a terrible fate
What paths to sadness
And what paths to hate?

Burning Icicles to tend to the dead - X

As I set foot into where I was
As I set foot into my past
As I break the barrier
And walk out of the cast
As time sets it's remark
And brings back the street
As the history change
And sets you back on your feet
Back to the day thought was right
The day made of freedom
Where you were born to fight
But now I'm back to the night
Back to where I started to stay
But my past was distant
And made me walk away!
I pushed on Minding what I want
But a dent in the book
Simply changes the front
For the very page of existence
Can never disappear
It can bring back memories
And turn them into fear
I hope they understood
Why I chose who was right
But that choice was wrong
And I couldn't stand the sight
Of my Memoria
Being let loose
For the broken
Is the one I would choose
But how can one
Be so wrong
After all this time
Of staying strong?
The hero doesn't know
Neither the knight
For none of them knew
Who was the right

For he was blinded by fear
And struck to the ground
For he could not see
For the love he had found
This one day
My mistakes got made
For these are the mistakes
That would later have to be payed
Followed by a ship
Sailing into peace
He saw a new sail
And he sailed with ease
But the wrong direction
Can lead to the one who tend Should have known right from the start
You can't predict the end

Dread - XI

Watching the eyes of pray
Plucking
Struck down by fate
Sinking
Feeling as good as love lets you do but why does that matter
On faith of all ado?

Steep - XII

If love can say yes
If I can say no
If the sun can shine bright
And weather make it snow
Can I do the marker's work?
Can I finish a crime?
Can I deal with the four,
When ever it is time?
Questions of fate
Never changes for good
Maybe it's bad
Or maybe it should?
If a lion should meet
With a tigers eye
And they both get along

Who of them would die?
And when, how and where?
Do I ask the formidable guy
For I can't get the answers
From someone so shy
That the answers
Cannot be solved
For that is what it said
And what we were told
Like the fish in the sea
And a prawn diving the deep
The answers are simple
But the mountain is steep

Destination - XIII

Back to the road
Where we used to talk
Back to the snow
Where we used to walk
And back to the place
Where life used to live
Back to the place Where we all used to give
Now there is no place left
The benchmarks are lost
The shop of hope moved
And the price of whatever cost
To a station without talk
Where the snow gently falls
And where all the memories walk
Where I once stood
Waiting for you
And when the train moved forward
Your love did too
For when we reached our destination
When I reached into your heart
When the light switched off
And when our paths grew apart
Where our lives entangled
For the very first time
And where you paid the price
For every single rhyme
And as I tripped back home

After the love of a memory
That is when I noticed
You were my number three
And when I stepped on the train Moving to my station
That is when I discovered
You were my destination

Fairly - XIV

Riding in the night
New places, new days
The feeling to feeling home
Is the only thing that stays
And the other
Floats along
Like a day bright sunshine
Shining so strong
But in the dark shadows
And deep ice snow
There is one place hidden
Where no one can go
So secret
That only two men have ventured there
For in the bright night
It's presence is all but clear
One can only go
With the purest of heart
And one will venture back
Pure from the start

Hurricane One - XV

What keeps us warm
And what keeps us aside
What brings us down
And what controls the tide
It's all a simple question
One simple solution
Not rich or poor
Nor death or pollution
But there is one thing
That makes us all mingle
It's this lonely feeling

And butterfly tingle
The way of communication
And the way of chemistry
How can one be so lonely
But yet so free?
It's just like a quest
Riding with your lord
Watching his every move
And every lunge of his sword
Watching and learning
Learning to learn
Watching his move
Every road, every turn
But a drop o blood
Or a lock of hair
Choosing one like this
Would it all be fair?
Green or brown
Blue or blond
What ever one can say
One can always grow fond
Of things that might sound strange
And things that might look pale
For what ever colour reason
I will set my boat to sail
Oh the past memory
And the present hurricane
One came to the heart
But the other, deadly pain

Afternoon - XVI

Tie My heart
And pull the strings
For loss it gives
But pain it brings
What will I be Once now the end is soon
For I can look up
And see the moon
One star
Maybe here and there
But the place will remain
Where I once shed my tear
Where we once stood

And now cannot care
The place written down
3 letters it is long
Moving to a loss
Only proves I'm wrong
The wait is over
The end is near
For a whole world stunned
A whole world full of fear

Vision - XVII

Vision about travel
Vision about the sky
A vision that will take me away
But a vision to make me cry
For this vision
Is only a dream
It is like an artificial cake
Covered in cream
For it does not exist
Struck down by fate
Waiting down low
Til its far too late
For my future,
Past and present
Ends when the moon
Is nearly crescent
Travel along
Throughout the void
Through the time and space
A dream that can never avoid Where Limits and rules
Do not exist
Where the reign of the future
Is controlled by an iron fist
Where my dreams lie
Where my future is hold
Where my past is present
And where my present is gold
Where my future
Has merely begun
Hi, I'm The Doctor!
Basically, Run.

Always - XVIII

When the world fails
And when my time falls
When the end is near
And when my time calls
Lonely little life
Lonely little fate
Come back to me
Please be my bait
I am the light
At the end of you
I am the light
Tunnelling through
I am the light blinking
At the end of the road
Backing up my life
And lifting of a load
You were always the one
To be followed my a crow
And I would be the one
Catching you as you go
For I have always Stayed in your reach
But that was not enough
For you to start preach
I would catch you
You would let me stay
But I would be inpatient
And I would walk away
You would be running downhill
And I would be far away
I would try to come closer
But my body would be like clay
Standing stiff
And frozen still Climbing the ladder of life
Going for the kill
But I used all my time
On preparing
And using all my time
On looking and staring
When what I should have done
Is jumping to the act
Not denying time
And ordering my fact

But it will always Stay the same
But I have none other
But myself to blame
I'm the light blinking
At the end of the maze
I am the light, the poet
Forever and Always...

Declaration - XIX

I'm not here
It's just a thought
One can call it a dream
Kind of something caught
Out of the oblivion
And of nothing
All though it might be hard
And sometimes might sting
But I'm not here
I still live in the rain
I live in all disaster
Living with regain
I can't come forward
And I can't go back
For the only thing stoping
Is the floor crack
The future of today
Is my past and The Note
The way to return
Is through what I wrote
They said if you don't let them out
You're gonna let them eat you away
I'd rather be what they said
Than be the one walking away
I end at the start
And everything begins once more
Through the regain
And through the core

Believe or Doubt - XX

Bring forth the children
Bring forth the fear

Dispose of the courage
And off those who care
Bring forth the shadow
Being forth the attack
Bring forth the power
And never turn back
No freedom
No peace
Set out on a journey
Across the 7 seas
Bring me the horizon
Bring me the dawn
Bring me a animal
And bring me it's horn
You without heart
You without mind
Who can never feel compassion
And can never be kind
If one believes
And does not doubt
Can make fruit appear
And throw it all out
And if he can do anything
If he would be wise
Why would he be so dark
And make you all despise
He can become a nightmare
He can lift a mountain high
He can bring me the welcome
And he can tell me goodbye

Before - XXI

When all comes to all
And when the snow reaches ice
When you paid for your virtues
For the dogs, cats and mice
But how could you leave this city?
How could you leave this town?
How could you ever leave me alone?
When I was shot down?
Red to blue
Red on white
All seemed horrible
But I said I was alright

When the moon fell in love
Fell in love with the sun
That was before my disaster
Had ever begun

Blue Flower - XXII

I once asked a boy
Why he was so sad
He told me
His mother had gone mad
I asked him nice
And asked why he was grim
His mother had been drinking
And her hand, hitting him
Shocked, baffled
And struck by fear
I asked the little boy
Why on earth was he here?
A slight voice came out
A little grin flew across
He told me about a flower
And bout his loss
The flower
Shining bright blue
Came from his pocket
And his tears came through
He told me his father
Had been buried
Deep at sea
His mother had been drinking
And her problems came to be
I thought bad for this boy
This boy with the flower, blue
His poor life depressions
And all he had was through
He had nothing to spare
He had eyes like clean soap
I asked this little innocent boy
Where was all his hope?
He looked up at me
He laughed and smiled bright
"Flowers and hope, sir
How do you sleep at night?"
"Sleep? I sleep well!"

The boy laughed and stood tall
"You think to good of yourself
When all you ever do is fall
What is life,
Other than a goodbye?"
"Life?"
"It's nothing but a black lie!"
A boy this age
How could he know?
It was like his parents were turned Into dust or snow
"I cannot help you!"
"Nobody can,
They try their best
But leave with their plan
You are all the same
Black suit and tie
But what are you really
At the apple of your eye?"
Nothing but a brick,
An X or a mark
You are all like a dog!
Bark bark bark!"
This little boy
Filled my soul with fear
How could he be like this?
What was he doing here?
I was simply assigned to feed
Not to investigate
How could I be this cruel?
Brutality filled with hate
I wanted to help him
I wanted to stay!
But he kept pushing
And turning away
Nobody helped the poor boy
He passed with the years
But his flower lives in us
And in all our tears

Too Late - XXIII

I did it once
I did it twice
I payed the fortune

And she payed her price
Pain and misery
I've done it all
The dancing dead
Regret, fall
I should have stayed
When I heard my fate
I want to try again
But now it's too late

Blink - XXIV

Walk through the woods
Baby, jump through the night
Never underestimate
The power of delight
Don't shower shame
Don't regret
Never believe in power
To fall for the sett
It can't be this simple
Something is wrong
And when something loses
It's power grows strong
And so a fierce night starts
And dream is just a glance
For maybe I'm dreaming
Or do I have a chance?
For after a dream
You wake up in paradise
But something is wrong
For I have not payed my price
Maybe regret
Or even solitude
I may ask later
But it's not meant to be rude
Once again i'm sitting here
Once again free
Once again my pride
Has taken over me
I need to change
And I need to think
For my life may be over
I'm my eye's next blink

Suffering - XXV

One person stands there
One person above all
The One boy who fought,
Tiredly, stands there tall
He wouldn't back down
When the night brought it's time
When times were tough
And as sour as a fresh lime
For this one boy
With nothing, but a guitar to strum
Walks the razors edge
Waiting for the end to come Barely able to walk
Energy fading away
Why must he suffer
From the desire to stay?
We will never know
For one day will come
When all is lost
And a new time begun
So far away
We wait for the day
A lifetime will be gone
And we will all have to pay
Not only for this boy
But for the one inside of all
The one that takes the suffering
Without taking the fall
Our sweet, sweet hearts
Aching with pain
Why do we torture our feelings?
And how are we sane?!
When all we go through is suffering
And the paths we take are false
The boy can barely breathe!
And his heart is losing pulse
Why don't we care?
Why don't we act?
Why does it always end in pain
When we all know the fact!
The fact that we all go dark
The fact that we are near death
Better buckle up now
He just took his last breath

Lemonade - XXVI

When life gives you lemons
You make lemonade
But if life gives you complications
You would wish you could trade
For life doesn't give you
Life will simply take
For when you defeat the problem
You leave everything at stake
Your compassion, your joy
Your love, your light
For when you lose your gambling
You also lose your fight
Compassion, becomes hate
And joy becomes a lie
For that's the life you'll live
If you simply stand by Change is vital,
And courage is all
A simple broken leg
Will only break your fall
When you reach the end
And all that is left is pain
Make sure your heart follows
And make sure you stay sane
For pain is temporary Pride is forever
Remember that stupidity
Is not a way of being clever
Lose all your pride
What do you have left to claim?
For when you lose all motivation
Everything is the same
No way to live
No challenge, No gain
Nothing would change
Nothing, but pain
An everlasting sorrow
Something missing, something lost
A hole in you heart
Covered in snow and frost
You can't fill it
You can't even try
You have to live with your sorrow
Until if the day you die

So never gamble your life
Never gamble your pride
For what other can one need
But an opportunity to hide?

The Violinist - XXVII

A tone coming through
A vibrant ringing sound
After all this looking I've finally hit ground
A broken rule
The book's new laws
This one true song
Makes up for my flaws
As I'm running out of time
Or at least that's how I feel
This one true feeling
And everything's appeal!
Finally stranded still
On an island without hope
For before this happened
I would not know how to cope
This is now my new home
I am not stranded anymore
For this is something different Different from before
For now I hear the music
Now I feel the light
My terrible luck
Is blinded by delight
The violin keeps playing
Throughout bumps and flail
For this light will stand
Others will not prevail!
A musician, a genius
The one and only
This one I am certain
Will not end lonely
For it is not a "new one"
But simply the first
To touch the poet's heart
And almost make it burst
A Violinist of stars
A flame burning worm

For this fire in a flask
Will save me from the storm

Her - XXVIII

Every time one blinks
And every breath one takes Every time one turns
And every move one makes
For every muscle moved
And for every single heart beat
Every time one crosses his fingers
Or even move his feet
His thoughts strive to her
And all what brings too
Her smile when she's blushing
And when her eyes look at you
You can't help but fall out
And think ever so long
For one to be able to break it
One must have faith, be strong
For she is so mesmerising,
That one cannot go without Thinking about her ways
And feel their heart shout
She is purely fantastic
She is purely one of a kind
IT would be hard to discover
And impossible to find Cliché, crescendo,
One far, and one free
She came unnoticed
But, she came for me

Freedom of Zero - XXIX

Beautiful creatures
And beautiful paths
Time's wonderful turnings
And our precious laughs
The way we chose to live
And the fate that come to be
May not be the fact
Or the only thing to see

We are our own paths
And our own mind
We choose the way to go
And what we want to find
May it be true love
Loneliness, money or greed
What ever you hunger
And what you choose to feed
It's all up to you
At least that's what's reality
But how can we know
For sure that we are free?
What if our minds,
And our free will is bound?
And what we call "fate"
Has it's way of not being found
What if we live
In the world we love most
And what if that world
Is nothing but our host?
We do what me must
But can we ever choose?
Do we really have anything to say
And everything to lose?
Nothing will tell
And nothing ever will
We will all live in envy
Of what we cannot thrill
But we never choose
We never break the mold
We do what me must
And we do as we're told
A wise man once said
That there was a reason for all
But maybe it's time to change
And time to stand tall?
Maybe we can
Maybe it is time
Maybe destiny and fate
Is the poet's final rhyme?

Limit - XXX

My life goals
My life alone

Amounts to nothing
But a small pebble of a stone
And a stone to a mountain
Or a drop to the sea
But yet these limits
Never proves all of me
For what is an ocean
But a multitude of drops?
But i wonder where it limits
And where it stops
For how much poison does it take
To bring down two dears?
And how much poison
To poison one of his tears?
One cannot limit by measures
And one must not limit our soul
For what is a limit
But an unachieved goal?

Purification - XXXI

Cleansing, purification
A clean soul, a clean will Going from warm darkness
Into the winter chill
Forward and back
Removal, reverse
One may think it's bound
Mad everlasting curse
But it is as simple as one
One step and one choice
Close down your ears
And listen to your voice
What do you hear?
From the deepest of your heart
Cleanse your emoticons
And from that is where you start
From darkness to light
And from sorrow to smile
One will to change
One will, for a while
The silent demand
The catharsis of soul
As light as a feather
And dark as coal

Quiet whispers
Silent and still
It's a part of your life
Your purificationist will

Inspiration - XXXII

A new way of writing
Something once forgotten
Something far lost
And once was rotten
Something so invincible
That it was ignored
It was like an unstable person
With a powerless sword
An inspirational tweak
Finally a vibrant sound
Finally a way to come back
To what I once found
A new way to look at it
A whole new inspiration
A new will to write
A whole new temptation
It's what I've been looking for I've walked so far
Finally back on track
Gazing at my star

Starshine - XXXIII

While we all sing along
The Starshine of night
Where blindness is covered
By the moons blue light
We ride together
Throughout what ever brings
Whoever may drag our bodies
And whoever may pull our strings
For in the brightness of dawn
Out of the darkest night
We have all fought
And forever, we will fight
For what ever future may come
And whatever lies behind

We forget our past
And we dig to find
Find new ways
For an archeologist can't stop
We ride into dawn
We ride till we drop

Lifeline - XXXIV

A lifetime of memories
It's time to set them free
It's time to show them all
That there is more to see
Set out to the wide ocean
And let the wind blow
Nothing has prepared me more
Than the weakness that I show
No more shall the light stand
No longer shall I fear the road
No longer shall I be pushed back
No longer shall I lift the load
Fear what I can fear
And bring me to the sun
To the moon and her light
Until my testament is done
But not only for the future
But also for what has been
For what can one lose
If it's the only thing he's seen?
If one simple dream
Could only change my fate
Then maybe it is time
To say it's too late
The innocent one
It's time to let her know
That she has prepared battle
That it's the only way to go
No longer shall I worry
No longer shall I fear
For I will be free
As long as I'm here

The Bullet - XXXV

The pain and torment
That one cannot break free
That of a gunfires shot
Can change what can be
Like a bullet at it's finest
Soaring through the air
Peaceful at it's tip
But waging war and fear
For what is a bullet,
But another worrying fact?
Because, what is a bullet,
But a burtal killers pact?
For the beholder of the bullet
The gun that takes on it's own
The one that brings might to power
And leaves us all alone
For fear can conquer,
Over what we call peace
For all it takes is a bullet
And a person to release
Fear over love
But a bullet is all that it will take Fear can accomplish
What other people fake

Pride - XXXVI

I stil have to accomplish
To say the sacred words
To fly up into the sky
Nothing but two birds
No troubles no worries
Just me and you
Every journey like a card
And every adventure, a clue
I may I trouble saying it
But you drive my heart to glory
Every single smile
Every single story
We were made for this
You and I
There is no crossing us
Just let them try!
My soul reaches out
And my mind turns around

For time and space
Gave us these bounds
They chose us
And I am never turning down
As long as you see this face
It will never wear a frown
I will never give up
As long as I have you at my side
My wonderful blue flower
You are my heart and pride

Biking - XXXVII

Reaching towards oblivion
Looking up to the stars
Hiding behind the bushes
And closed behind the bars
What may come to us
And what should we do?
How can we tell the differences Between me and you?
For we aren't all the same
We do not achieve the same goals
We do not feel the same emotions
We do not all have the same souls
We all preach differently
And to different signs
Some of us even don't preach
They hide behind blinds
But should all be accepted
Why should we not?
Do we deserve less,
If we are not part of the plot?
Hiding behind obstacles
Hidden in the blue use sky
Every single Hello
Will always end in a goodbye
But that doesn't change the fact
That a hello is worth a lifetime alone
For every step towards society
Wakes a wiggle to the bone
It makes us who we are
And it tells us all apart
For we are not islands
On a map you can chart

No we all live individually
And we should never live alike
Once you learn to ride
You will always know how to bike

Purple Skies - XXXVIII

What good lies
In looking to the past
What good lies
In thinking to fast
How can it be so wrong
When the past drags us in What good does it have
When we are dragged within?
Within our youth
And our younger days
For what does it other
Than ask us for pays
Pays of misfortune
And not fortune on it's own
For wealth and fortune
Only leaves you alone
Cold, heartless,
And shivered in your past
Wishing you could leave
Change of your cast
But do we go that way?
Or can we stop this thing?
Can we make this change
And turn winter into spring?
The clouds so purple
Coloured by the sun
For what we did
Was chosen as it begun
The purple,
The ever ending skies
Bringing us hope
Hope to lovers eyes
Because we beat on Like boats against the flow
We travel where it tells us
And we travel where it goes
Borne back ceaselessly
Borne back for ever, at last

Borne back ceaselessly
Into the past

Not Ever - XXXIX

I have looked far
I really have
But sometimes
I miss it all
And everything seems lost
Broken
But it's not worth my return
None of them deserve it
Why should I care?
Tell me!
Tell me right now!
If I've ever done it wrong
I haven't
And you know that well
For that's what they all are
A part of the purple skies
Reaped within my memories
Never to be let out
And the surrounding
The surrounding sounds and places
The places I've been
And never will return to
That is what I have sworn My legacy and promise
But every memory
Is like a tree
Small leaves falling down
If there is enough room
Enough trees
And enough wind
You will have the opportunity
To catch one
And sometimes they will catch you
And you may stand by
But it won't help
For brick by brick
You follow them with your eyes
Can't look away
Can't break away from the ropes
That you have already sett up

No turning back
Not from this
Not ever.

Into the Free - XL

It seems the night has come
Laid across the land
Looking back up at me
And where I stand
I look at the night
It always looks back
But once I have gotten a look
There is always a crack
A little bit of light
Shining thought the dark
While the wind blows the bushes
Hidden in the park
While I stand there
Wondering about all
Standing there while I'm risen
As well as when I fall
There is no other darkness
Then the one filled with black
For once one has take a step
There is no turning back
Going one way
Stepping into the free
Stepping into yourself
While I step into me
Going into the darkness
It always feels good
In a way I don't understand
But it's not something I should
I feel the bitterness
As well as the sweat
Stepping into something
That you cannot retreat!
Bittersweet taste
And unforgivable me
Setting my foot into darkness
But into the free

Burried Alive - XLI

Dirt and sand
Gravelled up from the ground
Not a noise to be heard
Not a whisper, nor a sound
Just the shovel
The inevitable herds
Of one mans wisdom
Over another mans words
At the brink of dawn
In the night's darkest hour
Upon the heavy rain
That down upon him would shower
The darkest of words
Would come upon him that night
That would bring him fear
And opposites of delight
It would strike him down
And strip him of his glee
Or what was left
Of his dream of being free
The words echoed through the night
And the man fell to his knees
He begged and he plead
"Oh god help, please!"
But one can't stop the inevitable
His time had finally come
The sound of his heart
Mirrored the sound of the drum
Now that all light is lost
And the digging has come to an end
It looks like we all
Have come to lose a friend
A grave, done by the shovel
And the man fell to his doom
To be burned In hell, Buried alive
Dug, his own tomb

Arrogant Ways: Part 1 - XLII

There are a lot of things
That I would want to be said
Something's that would leave a scar
For others, to be bled
For these things
They terrorise the inner peace

The monsters and their ways!
Never giving you release!
You want to end the loop
But all you can do is swim
And when you stop swimming
The end seems so dim
The lighting has been taken
The fabric has been given away
All that is left for you
Is to give up and stay
"But you have to move on Climbing up is the only way"
Tell that to someone
With ladder they cannot pay

Arrogant Ways: Part 2 - XLIII

People and their commitments
Something they cannot hold
Something we can never trust
In which they keep them selves
They keep it from all the others
They don't hold a word
You want to tell them this
But,
What is left to tell?
You don't want to say it
You want their answers,
Their methods!
Their every caring thought
You want them to bring to you
A silver platter
In which you can stay
But commitments
On which they cannot hold
You want to remind them
Of that one thing they did
How come they can't see
The obvious in front of them
When they are looking through
A simple glass wall
We have to look through iron
We have to listen light
For beneath these walls
Lies the great trust

But we have no tools
We have nothing to spare
We have only our hands
Only one way forward
The path that leads to nothing
Forgiveness, and an end
End you don't want to see
Without them knowing
Their arrogant ways

Reminder - XLIV

Where our emotions fail
Where our hearts do not belong
Where the future is set
By one simple song
A tiny memory
But a huge mistake made
But worry not!
The price has been payed
But like all things
They come back in sparks
Leaving tears on our faces
And our faces with marks
Others cannot see it
They think it all has passed
But first thing first
Somethings will last
Not in a big way
As I said they come and go
But sometimes letting emotions back
Is easier than letting them show
Some poems stay
Stay within my heart
They won't go away
Even after they part
Scars will always be left
And there is nothing we can do
But a reminder for the creator
And all he went through
Let your emotions go
Don't let others tear you apart
For nothing will end
Before a new start
A song sings

Within another song
You can't tell it's similarities
But you can't say I'm wrong

Disappear - XLV

In the distance
There is a voice
There is a question
But there is no choice
For the answer is no
And it always will be
For the question was told
"Can you ever do without me?"
Without you
Is how I disapear
Without you
Is everything i fear
To live my life alone
A nightmare to be true
Something I never wish to happen
To be separated from you
There is no if
There is no other way
For my heart to have you
And for you to stay
For without you
Is how I disappear
Don't ever lose hope
Don't ever think I don't care
I don't wont to be without you
I don't want to disappear
My future is one place
And your heart is where

Want To Be - XLVI

On the middel of nothing
At the beginning of the start
This is where I am
When we are apart
The only thing we need
Is the horizon I see
All we need is us

And that is where we'll be
At the dawn of midnight and the breaking of the light
When all is left to nothing
Fear and fright
We all know it'll be okay
It will all be over soon
We wi be together when we both can see the moon
In the middle of the water
And at the crack of sea
This I were I want you
And where I want to be

Fall Before - XLVII

The man who lies will lie no more
When this man teaches what he preached before
What ever comes or goes, goodbye
They will never find my alibi
Who ever fights, will fight in vane
When the man he fights will fight the same
When poems, songs and paintings unite
Well all be doomed without delight
When all els fails, and we try once more
We find our paintings fall before
When there's no room in hell, my friend
The dead will walk the earth again

Regeneration - XLVIII

There were marks on the wall
That stood proud and free
There were paintings with my name
And they pictured me
Things would be different Things have changed for some
But others seem to forget
How far I have come
I wanted to be the hero
But not anymore
I see past those faces
And the paintings on the floor
I see past all the poems
That once was a boy
That once was gloom

And the always searching joy
But now there is no downcast
There is nothing wrong to say
I have payed my sins for virtues
And I have done and made my day
There once was previous face
One you all had to see
There were poems with my name
That used to represent me

Seen - XLIX

What ever right
You have upon me
Is the right that I
Will never see
The right to tell
And to be told
For the fierce and nimble
The careful and bold
The truth. - One day
It will be seen
Care your eyes
Wash them clean
For all the ones
Just like me
Will be the ones
To never see

More or Less - L

On the rights of his attorney
In his dark driven fist
She searched for redemption
Through the never ending mist
She wasn't good enough
She was so simple and plain
And with the mahogany desk
She held his restrain
He didn't change his mind
He was still destined for the cause
Throughout the bumps and flail
He changed the new laws
He didn't define it as good

But perfect more or less
For with this accurate description
He fought through the distress
Prefect through the bad
And perfect through the good
Shaking of the dark fist
And returning how it should Objection against the cliche
And a hand against the old
The way to tell a story
And for this one to be told

An Afterthought

2014 - 2015

Wanting more from little else.

The Full Moon Alchemist - I

When all hope is lost
When time stops at last
When you can't do other
Than look back to your past
What do you do?
Once you have lost your mind
When you can't decide
Whether they are bad or kind
You look up
And you pray for light
For in eternal darkness
There is no wrong or right
The shining of the moon
In it's bright, greatest form
Not a cloud to see
Never broken by a storm
All the stars
Are all but unseen
The light by the moon
Make a person keen
For what can this go about?
What philosophies may it stun?
For some can only dream
While others are undone
It all has an end
In a light whistled guitar
One final song
For who ever you are
The light fades away
Over the short burst of time
When it all ends
In one, final rhyme

Bound Heart - II

My heart will always stay bound
To one singe thought
The one person I would bring anywhere
Without concern for what I brought A thought that came and stayed
There was no deny
The thought would stay in my heart
No matter why

There is no clue to how it happened
But I guess that I fate
And I will always be thankful
For it not being to late
Bringing me the horizon
And setting the once ridden sun
It has passed a year since
My life had begun
You are the thought
You happy creature, you
I know you love me
And I love you too
There's just no boundaries
To where our love will go
Where it will end up
Where we will show
But I know one thing for sure
There is no walking away
There is no turning back
For I will always stay
With the one that sealed my heart
The one that took my breath away
The one that told my soul
That it will be okey
The one that doesn't care for my past
The one that sets my heart on fire
The one that cares for me
The one that brings all the joy
The one that I can see
Can see will be the greatest
No wait, she is already
It didn't climb with caution
And it didn't wiggle steady
You were there all the times I fell
And you still are
You are simply not just my heart
You are also a star
You are the brightest star
In the sky tonight for me
I am the one to sett you free
Free from misery and suffering
From drought and pain
I just want you love
I crave no gain
For all I want
Is our future and our time

For you have all eternity
To be the one to shine
You always shine to my smile
You always shine so bright
But times without you
Are times without light
The times I don't see you
Are the ones I am alone
But the ones filled with joy
Saying I love you on the phone
There is nothing I want more
Than the love I receive from you
There is nothing I want more
Than to stay with you through
I love you
So much and never ending
You are worth all the worlds spending

Bedroom - III

I've been waiting for you in the bedroom
Cause I'm waiting for you to come home
I've been waiting to long I've lost track of time
And I'm trying to find my way back
I seem lost some times
I seem free of mind
But I'm set a new course and I follow the way to my goals
When the darkness surrounds me
And there's nothing left to do
And I find myself looking for me
Yet another time anew
I seem found by you
I feel it flowing through
But I've set a new course
And I'm ready to continue on
I find my course and I set
But I can't seem to find a new path
That would lead me to good
And away as a should
But I keep walking on my way back
I've been waiting for you
Just so you could come home
I've been waiting to long I've lost track of time

And I'm trying to find my way back

Facade - IV

Time on and time again
I have tried
But sometimes the elegance
Is so hard to hide
You can walk through the city
Without an eye on you
But the moment you step into me
All the eyes will see through
The facade that you try to pull
And that you try to screw
The one that probably can
Pack a punch or two
I've seen enough trouble to know
Where this is going
It's not hard to see
Your whole act I showing
Drive a car
Where I can walk
I'll sing your verse
Don't talk the talk
Just drive away
And ride my bike
Where will I be
The next time you strike
Just one dance
And I know all that I need
No pages to flip
Or books to read

Read These Words - V

It really just means I'm free
Just stay away from the shadows
And don't speak their name
For these things are wild
Although they seem tame
I might not see light again
But at least I remember you
I remember your face
And how our relationship grew

But now you must hurry
Because I won't last long
You must keep on running for me
And keep staying strong
Just remember,
Even though We're apart
I will always see the shadows
That rip through your heart
I will crush you little life
And annihilate you soul
And stab you every inch
Until you'll never be whole
Die, burn and never come back
The darkness has consumed this mind
Restless, crude and pure evil
This is how we unwind
You are next, to also be free
You are next, like all before
You will be slaughtered and killed
And your body turned a whore
No blood, no love
No peace, no grace
No body, no soul
No teeth, no face
A smile, a grin
An unforgettable lough
As the buzz saw comes closer
And you are cut in half

Life is Short - VI

This life is short
There is nothing I can do
But the time I spend
I will spend with you
Once the times come nigh,
The beginning forms anew
I see like then, as I do now
That you are one of the few
A poet is a poet
But when it stops its done
But the love for you makes this untrue
You truly are the one
I loved my life and broke my heart
Long before your love

But I always knew and trusted you
That we would go above
There's so much to see and so much to do
The only thing I hold
Is truth be told, the once knew bold
The fact that I'm with you
I simply love all that is yours
And everything inclined
I'll try to see and try to be
What ever that we find.
I'll hold you true, my forever love
I will never ever let go
I'll keep on trying, never be lying
And give what you will show
I love you so, I can't let go
My heart to you,
The violin in the snow

As the Story Unfolds

2015 - 2016

The end grows near.

Flashback - I

As time goes
You always seem to forget
Not that you would want to change
Nothing to regret
You just forget
As easy as so
You forget where you came from
And where to go
But as soon as you remember
What you didn't before
It's easy to see
What one thought of as lore
You forgot your roots
Your road of trial and fail
Where you build your first boat
And set sail
Many a scenes
Were to be seen
And many islands on the way
To fulfil your dream
Want to be loved
Want to be free
Set out in a boat
To sail you to me
We can all forget our roots
Where the adventure saw light
We can all forget the beautiful feeling
That once was so bright
It still is bright
But not in the same way
The feeling is still here
It will always stay
The first kiss
The first word
Knowing there isn't
Anyone else in the world
As the story unfolds
There will be nothing left to send
This story will always continue
Because the blue flower will never end

Undead Beasts - II

Undead beasts
Immortal power
One short burst
An everlasting hour
The new era
For the writer who never stops
Would find him writing poems
For the older that never drops
The hounds roaring in the distance
As all hell breaks free
We ride into the sunset
Becoming what we would be
Our horses, our demons
Your love and my might
Through the never ending tragedy
We will never stop the fight
For as undead beast
With their immortal power
We fight till we die
We fight till the last hour

Goodbye - III

I never thought
That this world could be so mean
The rain is pouring down
But not a cloud to be seen
As for one last time
We see his brown furry bush
When we all wanted to stand still
But all that came was a push
A push to something
That I never saw as true
I never saw this happening
Having to walk away from you
Over 9 years
It all seemed so much more
We will never ever be as good
As we once were before
The soft voice says
"This is the only way"
It is so hard to believe
When I wish you could stay
I will never forget you
Best friend to me

I will always remember you
For I will never see Anything as pure and good
As I know you can be Thought it seemed like I
Was the only one to see
The lonely soul
The true side of you
The one that was never shown
But in the end was true
You went through hell
And we never knew how to ask
We would just yell and yell
But there was no easy task
We all love you
Especially I
I cannot live without you
And I don't know why
You brown, little fellow
The perfect little friend
I never knew how to be Prepared for the end
I wish I could help
Or at least that I could try
We always seem to forget
How hard it is to say goodbye

Summers Deathbed - IV

Once again in the darkness
The old friend of mine
While the cold wind blows
And the summer closes time
The darkness is not evil
I have never said it was
It is more of a philosophy
It is more of my "because"
The cold air is sizzling
And the summer sun has faded
We have done our last card game
And we are all done with our bathing
Soon we stand in the snow
With our feet so wet
Though this time anew
We won't feel regret

At least I won't
And I have never seen it with you
I will never feel regret
The same way as few
We stand in the cold air
With the darkness all around
We feel the pressure from the surrounding
Our fates, ever bound
I understood for a long time
There is no longer I
We are the ever lasting martyrs
Who together touch the sky
Once again in the darkness
The poets enemy and friend
We stand together through it
Through ever bitter end

The Room - V

When I first walked into that place
I thought my eyes were deceived
I thought it could not be true
Those things that I received
Popularity, love,
Care and friends
It was the start of the beginning
But to an inevitable end
The power that I wanted
And to all surprise, received,
Would bring me to another world
Or so long I believed
I loved, I lost
I dabbled and I fought
But nothing could bring
More peace than I thought
What I wanted so bad
Turned against me one day
And when that time came
I decided to walk away
And I may have left the building
And I may have left that phase
But nothing can stop that desire
And keeping it at place

Love is All Around - VI

If only words could fill my mouth
As I write these words for you
The only thing I can guarantee
Is that all I say is true
A pretty odd story
Of a boy lost in the city
All he wanted was to be loved
To be free
But when the December morning
Turned to him to say:
"No longer shall you suffer
No longer shall you pay!
I offer you a deal
One to make you happy and proud
One to rid you of your sorrows
And make you feel out loud!
All you must do
Is give me your word,
Give me your poems,
And all you ever heard!
I will give you your love
But you must stay strong
Because this time if she leaves you
There is nothing left, but wrong!"
He nodded to the deal
Without further ado
The voice clapped his hands
And the pack was made true
The boy now had to search
For the one he was promised in the end
But she never came
And his time he had to spend
He looked everywhere
And all around
But the girl he was promised
Was never to be found
Until one day,
When he thought all hope was lost
The first day he had stopped looking
And the day he didn't pay the cost
She was found
Where anyone could be
But he knew it was her
Because he now could see

For whenever you are looking for love
It can never be found
But the moment you stop your search
You finally realise,
Love is all around

Dance With Me - VII

Time on and time again
I have tried
But sometimes the elegance
Is so hard to hide
You can walk through the city
Without an eye on you
But the moment you step into me
All the eyes will see through
The facade that you try to pull
And that you try to screw
The one that probably can
Pack a punch or two
I've seen enough trouble to know
Where this thing is going
It's not hard to see
Your whole act I showing
Drive a car
I'll sing your verse
Don't talk the talk
Just drive away
And ride my bike
Where will I be
The next time you strike
Just one dance
And I know all that I need
No pages to flip
Or books to read
Just dance with me
Follow my beat
Take a step
And feel the heat
Throw me closer
And take my tip
From that margarita
From which you sip
Just dance with me

Till the night falls flat
But that will never happen
As long as I tip my hat

Consumed - VIII

As you read these words
The wind may have taken me
While this might seem terrible
It really just means I'm free
Just stay away from the shadows
And don't speak their name
For these things are wild
Although they seem tame
I might not see light again
But at least I remember you
I remember your face
And how our relationship grew
But now you must hurry
Because I won't last long
You must keep on running for me
And keep staying strong
Just remember,
Even though We're apart
I will always see the shadows
That rip through your heart
I will crush you little life
And annihilate your soul
And stab you every inch
Until you'll never be whole
Die, burn and never come back
The darkness has consumed this mind
Restless, crude and pure evil
This is how we unwind
You are next, to also be free
You are next, like all before
You will be slaughtered and killed
And your body turned a whore
No blood, no love
No peace, no grace
No body, no soul
No teeth, no face
A smile, a grin
An unforgettable lough
As the buzz saw comes closer

And you are cut in half

The End: Part I (The Resurgence) - IX

The window is cracked
There's still writing on the wall
Just to show myself
No to show them all
The roses drown
In the ever lasting rain
While you keep dancing
In my symphony of pain
There's no truth
No solution, no grip
There's only this dream
Of landing at the tip
This surreal dream
Of never ending grief
While the single reason
Is never a relief
There are no songs
No poets, no blame
There is just this fantasy
That we are all the same
We don't survive to live
We don't live to die
The only reason why we never stop
Is that we don't ever try
So why haven't it stopped
The dream, the songs, the end
Why must my worst enemy
Also be my friend
There are no remedies
Of the "great" old day
There are the paths we chose to take
And the ones that are in our way
But can we ever know
What path was ours to take
When all we know is nothing
Compared to what's at stake
There are no poets now
Not then, not anymore
Because the ones that are poets now
We were never poets before

The End: Part II (The Vices) - X

Placing a smile
At the perfect event
Making me forget
Everything I resent
Like a smile
On a young boys face
Or the thing
You once called grace
You never really forget
Your first broken bone
It sticks to your heart
Like a cold, sharp stone
I never imagined
Feeling this way
But people and events
They seem to stay
So while I tend to the dead
And make the flowers bloom
While I row my boat
Through the everlasting loom
I stitch up the lies
Told by a previous face
And I must cover the horror
And unfathomable disgrace
It hurts, still
I will never forget
But the end draws near
And I have nothing to regret
Other than the poems I wrote
And the images I've seen
I've done it all
Just to prove my scene
I have high hopes
For the future, tomorrow and today
Everything I do from now on
Will be a delight to say
So while my vices rack up
And my virtues never do
I will forever be content
Because of all of you

The End: Part III (The Virtues) - XI

While we can forever talk
About love, loss and vain
But we must not forget
The light within the pain
The air inside the balloon
The mastery within the flaw
The writing on the wall
The talking without a jaw
We forget the truth
Or at least we hide
But why should we do this
When there is so much to pride
Pride within our actions
And pride within my own
Pride for people I've helped The magnificent milestone
Pride for the virtue of life
And living as of forever
Pride to keep on going
And giving up, never Pride in integrity
But never flawless as per say
Pride in the sunlight
Brought in everyday
I Pride myself of many things
But not of them all
For the chaos and the calm
Would seem to be my fall
When the world gets to heavy
Put it on my pride
There is loads to take from
And nothing to hide

The End: Part IV (The Chaos and the Calm) - XII

When your heart pumps
To a beat already known
When your footsteps crack
In the pavement all alone
You can feel the chaos
The chaos rising in
I can feel the end
Coming from within
I can feel my past
Drift away from my soul

Achieving, finally
My ultimate goal
But the chaos keeps me at bay
It makes me go insane
I can try to hide it all I want
But the poems are to blame
The calm is a nice thought
The calm comes from within
It tells me when it is time
For me to inevitably begin
A journey to find myself
My soul and you
So that I can begin to imagine
What I can do with the two
The chaos and the calm
The wind and the sun
The cold, the warm
And the feeling like I'm done
It's so far away in time
It makes me so stressed
It is so wonderful
I sometimes feel blessed
It is driving me insane
I cannot think anew
All this memorising
Makes all my actions blue
But the end is very close
And so is the chaos I feel on me
Let the calm come and let me feel
So that I, for once, can be free

The Last Winter - XIII

The sky shines blue
And the buildings shine bright
And the light in the ceiling
Shines it's light
Your breath is worm
The world is cold
The text is fragile
Dry and bold
The sun shows little
And the night carries away
The snow comes crumbling
While driving you astray

Singing your songs
Of an easy winter season
Giving you your hope
Trust and reason
Dancing in the cold
The dark and the great Singing your verses of Delight, love and fate
You realise who you are
And what you actually see
You realise your efforts
And you realise it's degree
In the cold winter weather
All you see is the dry
The cold and the dark
And your only reason why

The End: Part V (The Death of a Poet) - XIV

While The little that remains
Is left in peace
The dirty fingertips
Cover them in grease
So while the death
Is nothing to care
Make sure you promise
To never swear
The books now cover the pages
With filth, lies, and dirt
With all the people that have cared
And the ones that I have hurt
The letter with a photo,
The secret written in the cold,
The picture painted so precise,
And the book, written in bold
Tell me again
Who I am to be
The death of a poet?
Or the death of me?
I Am certainly uncertain
About the future of this task
"Wear the clothes, wear the hat
And don't forget that mask"
So while the books and photos
Once again they resurface

I do believe they did so
With a purpose
So maybe if I draw a kaleidoscope
Maybe if I listen to the song
I might actually learn again
And have to wait so long
Unorthodox and wierd
And maybe even strange
Sing a new verse for the people
And a new way to arrange
A new greeting and a fame
A new thought and a new stage
A new song, i might listen
A new poem, a new page
As The death of my poet
And The rebirth of my inner own
I see the way I used to be
And the reason we're alone
So while the last word is pain
The first ever is flower
While I die a death
I can never cower
So that The Flower of Life
Can ever bloom
While I reach
My inevitable doom
Stitch is gone,
The only thing I had
It is awfully happy
Though it might seem sad
Denzen, please forgive me,
I leave with great prevail
I win this game of poetry
To live as normal male
I watched this flower die
It is past it's due
With words, shorter than short
With petals, fewer than few
So while some flowers are small
And some bloom more
I look up to the sky
And I see the end

Genesis

2016

An unwanted child taken before it's own life.

Into the Dark - I

I see the darkness
I wake my eyes
I have risen to nothing
And by nothing to my surprise
I can taste the love
All around my soul
Around my womb
And everything as a whole
My train of thought Tracks into the abyss
And I long for something,
My first friend and last kiss
Tell me, father,
What I am to be
When all I feel is darkness
All around me

Two Youths - II

As an unexpected burden
As an unexpected treat
I was created to serve both
My master and my fleet
A city of evil
And a town lost of hope
A city; ridden with snow
And a place unable to cope
A boy loves his life in peace
And a girl follows her pace
He begins to wonder
Where to this would take place
Into the darkness,
For the two sparks of joy
That thought no evil,
And could not destroy
Build their love,
Craft their time
In an impossible universe
So dark and sublime

I Feel My Time - III

I have sensed it in my head

And I have felt it in my heart
That both my makers
Have now been torn apart
None of them of choice
And none of them of hate
But not out of joy
And not because it's great
I feel my time is of the essence
And my life is so much
I feel so hopeful
And so very in touch
But at the same time
I struggle to feel safe
From what ever comes to be What ever happens to them
Will also happen to me

The City: Part I - IV

A fact that I can see
Is that I will care
I will love you,
Honestly and fair
For you will be mine
And you will do great
I can feel it in my heart
I can chase away the hate
I told them about you,
Yes, I told them all
For I did not care
I could stand the fall
As the city calls for me
And asks for my aid
I have to obey
I have to fade
Into nothingness
And into everything
I need not all of you
For some things, I cannot bring
My past, my present
And every single friend
I will bring them all
Until my very end
My city calls
As does the created

Nothing will ever be like this
For it has never been debated
Faded into time
And added into me
I see the light shimmering
I can see it set me free

The City: Part II - V

While the darkness consumes me
I can sense a presence now,
Of something different and new
I can feel it, but I don't know how
A building fear, strange sensation,
A miracle, a nirvana
An extreme relaxation
A city forms
In front of my very eyes
'The City of Agartha:
A town that never lies'
A jolly looking sign
Just suddenly there
I could barely see nothing
Now I see clear
Males, and females
Their nature reptilian
Creatures, but not beasts
People, but brilliant
What are these visions
In my imaginary dreams
Are they but hollow fragments
Of my never-ending screams?
I will continue
This forsaken fortune of a friend
Although with no idea where to go
I already know the end

I Don't Want to Know - VI

There will always be someone
And something that cries
There will always be treachery,
Foolishness and lies
There will always be anger

There will always be blood
There will always be people
But there will also be a flood
I know this for a fact,
For I have loved it on my own
I have seen the mountains of sorrow
And I have walked the path alone
Though now by fortune,
But by choice
I hear the horrible people
Screaming with their voice
'What a horrible person'
'What an insufferable skank!'
I guess I have no one else
But myself to thank
So when you ask me these questions,
I don't want to reply
I want to stay silent
When you keep asking why
I don't want to tell you
And I don't want to know
How we both can love her
And how our relationship can grow

The City: Part III - VII

These people tell me of their secrets
They scourge me with their thought
'Please help us build it again!'
They tell me with their plots
I tell them there is no reason
This is all in my dreams!
But they never listen
Of so it seems
They keep telling me of Agartha
The newfound City of hope
For the people cannot find love,
But neither can find rope
To climb their self esteem
To overcome their ego selves
To pack their bags and go ahead
Remove it from their shelves
They tell me I'm loved
But the outside gods
They never tell me who they are

And they never tell me the odds
I ask them and ask them
But all they do are avoid
They say the impact of the answer
Is compared to a meteoroid
The journey never ends
Although it feels as so
As long as my will goes on
I will continue to go

My Dreams - VIII

'Please do explain' I get told each day
I tell him Its not that easy
I tell him I'll keep trying
I tell him my dreams are greasy
They tend to slip away
And come back when I do not need
I ask him what to do,
But all I do is bleed
My emotions bleed out
And my mind withers away
I can tell by the way she smiles
That this is not the way it stays
I can tell from the sadness
Hidden deep in her eye
That she is the reason
I will never feel the sky
The sky of the city
Deep in my mind
The dreams I don't remember
Where there is nothing to find
I think I'm going crazy
I think I need a break
She's moving away now anyway
Moving to the lake
But not across the street
Across the land we know
She's going so far
That I can never go
I will see her though
The one last time she smiled
The point in the future
Where she gives birth to our child

My Name - IX

My name will be the only
My name will be my last
My creation will be the future
But the love will be the past
In the city that called for me
All I felt was pain
Even thought in the darkest hour
I could feel it again
The last drop of hope
The love that comes for me
The only thing to guide my quest
And the on thing I see
My name will be my passion
As it is the only thing I need
It will come with me while I win
And it will stay with me while I bleed
My name will stay with me forever
And I hope it stays with you
My father, please remember
My name, faithful and true

X²: Resurgence

2018-2020

Avoiding the very cold realization of one's loneliness

Relations - I

In the cold wind Of the bitter snow I clench my hand Unable to let go I want to say I'm sorry I want to wave goodbye The snow crumples between my feet As I let out a sigh Why am I blessed with this feeling? Unable to be alone Forced into relationships Just to prove that I've grown

Revelations - II

Feel the sky crack
In an even, old style
I feel now, like before
An unanswered "while"
The time stops once,
And resumes all the more
Bringing legends, fables
A bastard, and a whore
King of a story
Written by a queen
He trots the even battleground
His braveness, lines, between
He sleeps in a bed
Riddled with filthy lies
Of a former life and prodigy
And a love forgot and disguised
A little green, a little red
Some yellow and some blue
He paints a picture of lies
With words spoken true
He lies beneath a broken lamp
A light flickering blind
While waiting now, forever still
Until he falls behind
It's not a girl, nor blizzard
Nor a book, nor a train
It's the sadness blooming
While forever standing in the rain
A heartbreakin slow Friends standing by
The regal crown, however as fine
Can never, ever die
A hope and a dream
That I never seem to learn
For once I stop and give it up

For more, I yearn
At the end of an era, I once again stand
Once again I'm blind
I must face what comes, with faith
A future, I must find

Temptation - III

As the boy grew older
As he grew more wise
He grew further away
And closer to his demise
He suffered through the pain
A promise, and a loss.
He tried to cover up his past
In a thinly veiled gloss
After isolation
And after time alone
He wanted to retake his glory
And rebirth his throne
If all he found was misery
Why would he dare to try?
Was it out of curiosity
Or did he know why?
He went across the untouched land
And even furthermore
To find some peace
To love and life
More than he had before
"Come back!" Cried the boy
To the lonely young man
Who tried to find a reason,
But could not understand
"Don't do this to yourself
There is always so much more"
And maybe he will learn now
What he failed to learn before

Distation - IV

Caught myself drifting
Caught myself blue
Finished thinking
Whether it was true

Pushed down a hill
Stumbling on the way
Can't gain footing
Can't bring myself to say
Time passes on
But I'm still here
Lacking what I lost before
Realizing it was never there

The White Fern - V

A simple white fern
Glowing in the dark
Shining bright, a new light
A diamond cut, a spark
I want to know the reach of you
And your everlasting smile
Teach me what I must do
To make it worth your while
I want you to be the new
I want you to know
The reach of poems and of me
To speak of you in the snow
You are an addition to the cause
A new line for sure
I want to know what you can bring
And I want to be sure
A tale retold a million times
A number 6 in a list of 4
I didn't know then
But I do know now
The list is no more
A castle set in cobblestone
I want to learn a new song
A new song about love

Justification - VI

With an odd scent in the air I recollect this very day I remember a certain choice I try to get away I concern myself with anguish But, what is there to fear? The truth of the matter? A guy with purple hair I sit here wondering How this came to be Not the colouring or the image But the fact that I'm free Freedom entails a choice And freedom promises peace It provides me with a sense of passion But gives me no relief Was I free to do what I want? Was I happy in my misery? Does this freedom come with perks? Was I content with captivity? I yearn for more But all I want is my past The one thing that was forever The one thing that didn't last It puts me into place I am happy this way I just can't find peace Until this goes away With a familiar light That I recollect this day Feel the passion for tomorrow Slowly fade away

Restoration - VII

Teaching and learning
Deciding what is best for me
Traversing the land of the greater
And the land of the free
Deciding my future
Based on a fickle act
Giving up all hope
Relying on a false fact
Revisiting a pain
Something I used to know
Learning from experiences
But deciding not to grow
Stuck in a stupid dream
A sickness without medication
Falling down from a blow
But relying on a restoration
A growing pain
A loneliness without a scale
My life grows week
And my skin grows pale
I need this purification
My thoughts and my actions alone
I need to feel safe again
Trapped, without a home

Sensation - VIII

Something weird and honest
Akin to something new
A thought of something different
And that different was you
Married to a single time

Unable to see ahead
A thought that hits right at home
Waking up, or going to bed
A toxic feeling passion
A tunnel visioned dream
Going up against the current
But falling down the stream
An uninterested world
An unaverted gaze
Unable to move forward
In this love inspired maze
I cling to this feeling
Of a solitude that true
A thought of something honest
And at the end there's you

Fluctuation - IX

They say people memorize their future
But what is there to see?
A bleak thought, a sad dream
A depression waiting to be
I see new colours today
Ones I've grown to forget
Some paint a quaint picture
Others remind regret
A deaf man can't hear the sound
The most marvelous sound of all
But he can tell when you need him
He can save you when you fall
My future acts a calendar
Nothing more, nothing less
There is nothing on the horizon
No one there to impress
My heart yearns for its place
One it used to know
I have to follow its dreams
But I cannot let it go
It will be lost when I need it
It will be found all too late
I want to say that it's all me
But I know that's not my fate.

Desperation - X

Do I look lonely? Have you seen me like this before?
Is it the cold wind outside
Is it the unbearable chore
Is it the rerun of a differred year
The retelling the told
Is it me crying for help
Or is this growing old?
Do I really believe in the future
And the people wrapped all through
Is there a reason for these emotions
Give me some gold for this blue
I reach for something simple
But settle for complex
Denying happiness
And forcing me to digress
I live in a utopian dream
A fantasy of sorts
Lasting too long
But always too short
I beg for something different
But require the faithful blue

Damnation - XI

Throughs seem to drag my mind
Every moonlight hour
Never thinking about my next sleep
The next number, or my next shower
I fall asleep to the same old thoughts
I dream the same old dreams
I can hear the daybreak
As I see the sunlight gleams
I am left alone in my own bed
Hiding dreams within my thought
Never asking what I was thinking
Never questioning what I saught

Superfluoulation - XII

Deciding who I am
Based solely on an unknown fact
Feeling melancholy and disgust
Solely based on how you react
I still live in a dream

With all I want to be true
I've seen this day, I've lived this night
And I have thought it all through
I know not what you want
I only know of your greed
But I need salvation from this curse
I want to be freed
Your words mean nothing to me
Your actions amount to all
I could be told what I was told before
But it would simply stall
You must defy what you do
And I must be allowed to leave
You will be required to sacrifice
And I will be allowed to grieve
Sounds ominous
Desperate, but clear
I have no dreams, no emotion
Just time to spare

Nation - XIII

The king the queen
The bishop the knight
The rook the pawn
Taken by the night
Living peaceful
Young and free
Living a perfect life
In endless harmony

Seperation - XIV

I didn't think of you
I slept well last night
No early waking sounds
Just the sun shining bright
I felt a great weight on my chest
When I tried to rise from bed
"no worries," I told myself
"I'll sleep some more instead"
As I drifted off to unwavering rest
My mind took an alternate route
It was too late for the whimpering sound

Desperately trying to be a shout
When in the dream I awoke
The sun was blazing hot
There was no sadness, no worries
A great deal of water, but not a lot
As my body relaxed
I wanted to dream more
But there was a thing
That would haunt me more
A text message
Creeps into my phone
"Hello, how are you?"
"are you currently home?"

Stall Me - XV

Stall me. So I don't miss out
Stall me stall me
So I can't reach out
Make me a slave
Of my own desire
Make me keep
The things I require
Stall me, stall me
I'm all in
I'm crying by the boxes
Love lost within

Stagnation - XVI

Please stop. I won't tell you once more
Your words tell a future
But you act such a bore
I've tried to speak up
But you know that's not my right
I cower beneath your attention
And answer to your light
So just stop this
You must do the deed
You must break this curse of mine
So that I can also be freed
It hurts me
A great deal too
I thought we were done

And that we were through
But you come running back
To pick up my hand
And leave me in a moments notice
Alone, where I stand.
There is no virtue to your actions
There is nothing I can do
But to write my tragedies
And hope you do too

Stuck - XVII

In different lands
In strange terrain
I release the love
Stuck, within my brain

Deviation - XVIII

I've smelled this air before
I've listened to this very song
I've kissed these very lips
As I remember something from before
It cannot be the smell
Not the people, not the sound
It's written in the walls
It's clinging all around
I sense an ominous air
As I write words written in the past
I remember back to the days of black
A prophecy to make it last
I dread this very feeling
As it feels too good
The ominous wind
Does not stand where I stood
This girl of a grand entrance
A girl with a smile so wide
A person, a new interest
My love, impossible to hide
A passion and an insecurity
A hope and a lie
A smile when you call me
But all ends when I cry

I Want to Be - XIX

I want to be free
It feels like a decade since I last saw you
But I saw you the other day
You were sitting right next to me
But your presence was far away
You whispered in my ear
I whispered in yours too
At any chance I had to look
I would look up at you
Watch you smile as your focus shifted Look away when you glared back
A lot to take in without wonder
And one day I will stop keeping track
I want to be loved

The Youth - XX

Can't fight against the youth
Can't reach for the moon
Never going to take them
At least, not this soon
A sweet symphony
Of death, hate, love and war
One more barrier to be broken Something else in store
One new, again
A repeat in time
A wish so faithful
A dream so sublime
She entered once before
A fated day
Leaving too early,
But wanting to stay
I can remember
The words she played
Dipping up and down my ears
Slightly positive, but delayed
In an instant our eyes locked
And our time stopped for all
And until our gaze shifted
She had only one person to stall
I thought I was too old to feel
This ever feeling once more

As I thought I was Quite too youthful before
She rests her head on my shoulder
Whispering the truth
I smiled, lifted myself and said
Can't fight against the youth

Dirigation - XXI

She's got you dreaming
And you don't even know yet
She's got you thinking
About something you'll later regret
You can't imagine a path
That she has yet to cross
But you can't foresee a future
Without imagining loss
She can't seem
To take the subtle hint
And you can't seem
To read the fine print
Is it something that I said
Is it real, is it true
I'll try again tomorrow
Is it me, is it you
You've got her thinking
Her unpaid debt
She's got you dreaming
And you don't even know yet

Astrolation - XXII

In an age of truth
Peace and reconciliation
I reach towards the stars
Awaiting in anticipation
For the truth I seek
Is not meant for men like me
I must keep waiting
Calm, collected, but regrettably
In the age of death
For the summer, winter all the same
She gives me no signage
She leaves me in this game

I know the rules
I've played in the past
I don't seek assistance
Just the pace to be fast
The early rounds
Cling to things known
I suffer in anxiety
Without your face shown

The Lake of Shadows - XXIII

A heat emerged
From beneath the depths
Breaking water, from ice
Marble, of the steps
It fills the room
Chaotic in its way
Came, to procure death
Stayed, just to play
A vibrant ringing sound
A distant spark, a flare
A deep void, lingering
Four eyes, bound to stare
Locked within a state of panic
Frantic in the way I look
A distant path, a new future
Something within that she took A nymph, but a hydra
Cut one off, it grows anew
A head made of many
But a soul made for few
My heart lingers within the song
My lungs fill with remorse
I've led you right to me
And my life has run its course
I can see the water rising
As I'm drowned in a sea of hate
It seems I'm doomed in this life
Sealed by my own fate
The water lingers on
As I'm doused once more
It seems it's here to torture now
Or was it like that before?
A bright blue flower
Emerges from the grave

I know what I have lost
I can see what I couldn't save

The Forest of Dreams - XXIV

I can sacrifice this freedom
A youth, most willing to grow
A sweet love, though birthed
May traverse ever slow
While time is of the essence
And most are gone by night
I live in a dream, effortlessly
Parading in your delight
A swift closure of a fear
I can feel it looming in
Your passion for a life worth living
Draining me, silently from within
But I smell sweat nectar,
Love within the hives
Breaking new ground, for me and you
Wishing only, to live our lives
But soon you leave me
Or so I fear and dread
I hope, of course, the best for you
But I hope you stay instead
But I can live in sadness
A thousand miles apart
Because you, and your precious smile
Is worth a broken heart

The Crimson Weapon - XXV

We pillow our thoughts
As a new day is planned
We dare to look back and encourage us
And where we stand
Three shots in the chamber
One missed and one bled
One dragging on, ever through
The young partners head
A heart filled with sorrow
And a heart filled with joy
One breathless acolyte
And one silent boy

As the air grew quiet
And a ringing came through
It came, and overcame
As the ringing sound grew
It turned to pain, remorse
Guilt and despair
No worry through the night
Four eyes, bound to stare
No pillows, No truth,
No anger, no roaches
Just a weeping sunrise
As a red death approaches

The Last Wish - XXVI

Before you go
There is one last thing
Within all our conversations
A thin red string
In the way you smile
In the way you talk
In the way we speak
And the way you walk
We deliver an uncertainty
In our every move
As we dance in daylight
An uncomfortable groove
But I have one last wish
Before I lose you too
I want to you believe in me
And myself through and through
I have one last wish
For you to live in glee
I want you to live happily
And that's without me

The Crown of Sorrow - XXVII

There are many things
Studded to the crown
A deep lore, a distant future
A dress and a gown
There are buttons
Studded on a dress

There are people living
In constant regress
I dare to move forward
And to place the crown atop
I dare to gase, throughout the haze
To see them all drop
But I do not dare
To tread this new land
I do not dare tp place it
Upon my cursed hand
I fear bad things
For a great tomorrow
As a rare ruby jewel
Within my crown of sorrow

Casual - XXVIII

The thoughts that leak
Inside my mind
Are just the dreams
Left to rot
In a ballad of time
Singing it's song
The Infinite rhyme
With sun kissed skin
And a body that is sore
With a person that I miss
But do not yearn anymore
Don't teach me of regret
You just didn't care
Returning the favour
Of a casual affair

Chamber of Starlight - XXIX

I sit again and wonder
What ever came to be
The last time i contemplated
Who you were to me
All I could see was the sunshine
Clogged by the air of malice
A sweet taste of free life
Like red wine from my chalice

But as the wine molded
And swiftly turned to dust
I reach for a golden goblet
Filthy, covered in rust
As the money lost momentum
Bills were piling fast
I sit here in resignation
This time, like the last
It's hard to imagine tomorrow
When yesterday was fine
It's hard to greet each new day
When dust remains of wine
It's hard to fathom tomorrow
In any form or way
When last week was brighter
Than it will ever be today

Desolation - XXX

A renessance of emotions
To myself, that I have told
These things that should not exist
But written in highlighted bold
But one can't seem to forget
And dismantle the futile act
As they said we deal with what we see
And counter with how we react
There are grounds for these emotions
Sure, but are there any more?
Is this a dent in the ceiling
Or is it a speck on the floor?
Is it one with the Forrest,
The lake and the bliss?
Is it a good day handshake
Or a goodbye kiss?
As the land within it grows
And the places find their fit
We miss the barren wastelands
And forget them, bit by bit
I design, forge and rearange
Within the song of fate
I find love and comfort, peace and prosperity
Desolation, carelessness and hate

Gratification - XXXI

And so an era ends
As a new one begins
Who knew what I could lose
Just to say who wins
I have a freedom from love
But an abundance of regret
Something I try to remember
As I try to forget

Lake Violina - XXXII

In a time Where no one could be seen
Looking through the lines
Behind, Over, and between
In a time where feelings differ
In a time in a foreign land
I stay, to try to hide away
For a reason I do not understand
I still dream of your name
And I still mourn my mistake
I feel entitled to you
As I dows myself in your lake
I am free to do what I want
I am tortured by this fact
I don't know how to live my life
Living in the shadow of this act
I can't believe I'm sitting here
Wallowing in my own regret
Desperately trying to remember
The reason I have to forget
I want to leave for someone else
But your smile stands in my way
And in a way it feels the same
My life is still so gray
Please, water spirit
Blue flower, all the same
I want to see you smile again
I want to take the blame
I still see you in the night sky
Everytime I fall asleep
Sometimes I see you when I laugh
But always when I weep

Untattled Tale - XXXIII

Sometimes I wonder
Where I would ever be
If the past wondered closer
And I'd see through me
And I could taste the bittersweet
That I have grown to know
And I would enrich my wonder
And teach myself to grow
I would be an adult
In a past of a little man
I could try to be seen as this
And I could try to understand
In such a past
There is black written on white
There I there is sepia tones, and blue hormones
Where the future calls so bright
There nothing to do
Nothing I'd rather see
Than the light of the one
That used to love me

The Waltzing Wraiths - XXXIV

In the ubiquitousnes of love
In a footnote of a different time
I see with the leaves retracting
And the windows' growing rime
A cold sensation sweeps me away
As I'm dragged into what I once knew
Destined to rewrite what I saw
And describe as "one of the few"
As the dead creep, dancing
And I'm thrown off once more
I see my time, as I once did
In the greatness and galore
In a three by three time
And fashionably clothed
I see, in them, what I now love
That I all before loathed
I teach myself of patience
But I don't see eye to eye
I want to pray for purification
But I don't want to say goodbye

The dancing dead, float above my head
And laugh me to my grave
I want to greet whatever comes
But I'm afraid I'm not that brave

The Garden of Salvation - XXXV

Past the vultures graveyard
Stands a testament of time
Tombstones robbed of corpses
A city robbed of crime
In the middle of the desert
Lies the perfect land
Coveted by the people
Bellowed by the sand
Within the timeless oasis
Lies a promise of truth
A trade for the knowledgeable Sacrificing youth
An ancient distant people
Speak of the place
Within it lies the answers
Bestowed by Yanem's grace
They live, breath and obey
To the words spoken before
They treat the past as nonexistent
And the future as an open door
Breach their walls and tell the tale
Of the Oxanans greatest gift
Have them regress, and reassess
And make their future swift
In a world threatened by time
Where peace is the destination
You will find truth and lies
Within the garden of salvation

Amaranthian Lullaby - XXXVI

Once in that valley
I dreamt of a dead day
In the colour of the future
Seipiad by the gray
Created by eternity
In the glass house of time

I toss a coin up in the air
Wasting my last dime
A woman blessed with a curse
And a desperation trapped within Rotting from the inside
She can't help but grin I see in the light of her
A past by Yar's mistake
Past the trees of Odenna
And further past the lake
Tell me now, sweet Amaranth
What is there to see?
When every path you'll ever take
Will lead you back to me?
Tell me now, sweet angel
What is there instead?
When life goes on eternaly
And you remain dead?
Alive in your winged form
And spreading like winds
I fear for Parabelum
As tomorrow begins

The Guise of Epilux - XXXVII

In my travels as of late
I feel a certain ambition
Breaking new ground and worries
But keeping true to tradition
My hunger grows deep
And my senses grow true
I feel a certain way
And I feel it with you
I can grasp my future with my fist
And I can carry my own weight
But I need someone to narrow me
And keep my path straight
Because I feel distant past
I can sense the futures grip
I brave my thoughts and go
Toes dipping with just the tip
Swallowing me whole
As the water surrounds me
I long to be loved
As much as I long to be free
My dreams teach me

Of what I should do
And right now it's telling me
To stay right with you

Kaleidoscopic - XXXVIII

I can sense her movement
Within the boundaries of my room
I can sense her eyes wandering
Throughout my ever gloom
Mirrored in your iris
I can see the shining light
Letting out a tiny breath
Wallowing within your delight
Spelling the letters out loud
With your Kaleidoscope eyes
Finding my infamy shrouded
And my face beneath the disguise
You may not recover me fully
You may never make me whole
But you breath new found life
Into a withered old soul

The Spire of Stars - XXXIX

I dream of distant planets
I am just a little boy.
Someone will share my wonder
As I shed a tear of joy
I left without reason
Without cause and rest
I thought it would lead to something
And it was ultimately the best
The pop in my mind
And the fuel to drive me there
A distant light, I sensed it,
Driven by my personal fear
I clenched my fist in anger
As I lived through my pain
I closed my eyes and realised
That nothing could remain
I cut my ties and left alone
In a future held by me
Somewhere that I could finally

Live the life of the free
And now right next to planets
I dream of distant space
I awake in tears, my worst fears
I could not fill it's place

Wilt - XL

As the story unfolds
Just like in that day
I stay vigilant, the same
Passive and away
I tie my sorrows to the sky
I look for onward light
I find something new to grasp
To my very own delight
As the story unfolds
I sleep with my own guilt
A never ending story

Starlight - XLI

Try not to speak
Ill fated words, my grace
Not of her posture, her clothes
Her body nor her face
You will find a fondness
And a very useful reciprocation
You will find it living, breathing
Within your destination
Try not to stare
At those stars, my grace
You'll be disgraced by family
And banished from this place

Spite of Steena - XLI

Four eyes stare me down
This uneventful night
I look for answers and for help
A harbinger of spite
I do my wishful thinking

And I read the texts of old
I tell people what the want to hear
Hoping my heart can be sold
I swing back and forth
The stars vanish and appear
In one moment utter delight
In another, crippling fear
I want to be freed
I've said so for so long
I require the faithful blue
I need to sing that song
So please, stars of wonder
I beg for your inward light
I seek your newfound answers
A harbinger of spite

Deserted Emotions - XLIII

Just now we march together
Your hand within my arm
Betraying old words
But meaning no harm
Dressed to impress
And heart in hand
I take us to the beach
And walk across the sand
My eyes follow through
But my words betray me first
I try to explain, my inner pain
My unquenchable thirst
We cannot see eye to eye
We cannot see at all
While face to face, we will embrace
All we have is a call
The beach turns into dessert
My soul trapped within
I see the heavenly light
Brush against my skin
Tulips and some roses
Plant them here and there
I hope that I can save it all
With four eyes bound to stare

Ashes of Laex - XLIV

The future holds us tight
Releasing by the though
I knew what you were seeking
Because I received what I sought
But this happiness was shortsighted
The root of evil astound
I reach, jump and try again
But fall flat, on the ground
I burn the tinder carefully
As I rest for the night
I that the morning awaits
And in it comes the fight
I know that the ashes will be the end
I know that I follow
My feels sadness already
As it all withers, and turns hollow
This is sadness, this is prophecy
This is happiness, this is heresy
Through the anger, comes the unwise
From the ashes starts his demise

The Inward Lamp - XLV

I can sense danger
From the inward lamp
In a cellar so cold
Yet a bedroom so damp
I sense the air escaping
As it all fills with the lake
I sense the truest true
As I open my eyes to the fake
I judge you as equal
As you would judge me
As I go from being loved
To rightfully, being free
I relive your words
Every night in my sleep
I thank you for your kindness
Harrowed in the deep
I relive old songs
As four eyes turn to two
I look towards the inward lamp
Hoping it would pull through

Depression - XLVI

Anytime I think the thought
I know what waits for me
A distant time and place
A friend awaiting in flee
I've tried to bounce back
And I've tried to move ahead
But I still wake every day
Tired, in the same old bed

Request - XLVII

I can see your last request
I chose this regret
Like air, I walk alone
My thoughts turn my heart to stone
I dream as I would awake
A song, my own mistake
I die, as I would have lived
But take not as I would have gived

The King of the Clouds - XLVIII

An old alias awaits
The knight of the wind
A life lost to smiles
Turned evil grin
The mark on an era
A mania returns
Feeding your ego
As your life lives and learns
The king of the clouds
Henceforth embarks
Leaving trails of nothingness
And checking it's marks
As my life bleaks to white
A dark mist enshrouds
I live in this darkness
The King of the Clouds

Tattoo - XLI

I foresee a future
One with blue, regret and despair
I have seen the present and the future
With determination and without care
I'm just a charlatan
Writing music for guitar
Flashing my emotions
My tattoo, and my scar

The Mountaintop - L

I have spent years climbing
The love of our mountaintop
You're leaning over the edge
But I cannot make you stop
It was faster, more agile
Than attempting the impossible
You were sly and adventurous
I was sad and methodical
You reached as I climbed Unjust, rest your head
I climbed for us both
Wishing I was alone instead
You just didn't love me
You were passing the time
From the peak of the mountain
I can see you climb
For future reference
I'll stay behind
My love made you passionless
And yours made me blind

Antumbra

2020 - 2022

The perfect eclipse of darkness and hope.

Winter Queen - I

As a cold sensation, begs for my attention
I seek to understand the lie
I try to find, but cannot climb
And learn from when I cry
The bonds that hold it together
Keep my hands at bay
I said what you wanted to hear
But you didn't hear what I wanted to say
The future, I cannot see
Memoria; A star aligns
I keep my peace, but wonder
As the snow reflection blinds
Both my heart and my mind
I'm yours, as the moon and the night
Bind me up, cast me away
The wind beneath my kite
I lay in peace, years away
As my mind drifts to wonder
I think, relax and process
I feel, I try, I ponder
Oh, dear Memoria, my sweet winder queen
The cold wind blows my way
I finish the through, and leave distraught
Her love leads me astray

Antumbra - II

The light shines from the moon
As the night fades away
It brings me no peace
As the light welcomes day
Inherently unwanted,
Unnecessary and lost
I feed my addiction
Feeding on the frost
As my heart shivers
As my mouth goes hush
A future, so barren
And a past, so lush
The light of the moon
It all turns to dark
As there are no staring eyes
No brand new spark

A nightmare, a past
No objective reality
No future, no hope
A terrible duality
The antumbral essence
Creeps from all around
My east can but hear
That unhelpful, guttural sound

Those Times - III

I miss the days when I would stay
And you would tell me stories
There were no tasks, there was no school
No job, no stress, no worries

Asleep - IV

As I have seen colours
I have also seen dark
The white texts radiate
The emotions of my heart
I think very clearly
But I don't react accordingly
I smile and nod dorkly,
While you feel me up, adorably
I laugh in the awkwardness
As you tell me to be quiet
You tell me I'm beautiful
But I don't buy it
I rip and tear in the dream
I react as I would awake
I thought it was reality
The everlasting, tortured, mistake
The past is not the present
Winx, when will you learn
You haven't seen enough wrong
To know what you should earn
If love is not enough
Put my enemies to sleep
I reach for the lantern
As I fall back into the deep

The Piano Knows - V

The sound of silence
Rings through
As I reach for the book
Next page, something new
A sheet of notes
A brand new song
Galvanising poems
Reaching ever long
The lies I've heard
And the truths I've hid
The box of deceptions
Closed with a lid
The sound of music
Reaches through the room
As I reach for a piano
Uncertain doom
You heard my prayers
You heard my voice
You gave me no reason
You gave me no choice
You filled my head,
All the way through
Now the piano knows
The things I never told you

The Downwell - VI

The future leads
My thoughtful insight
I deem it fruitful
And the lantern bright
I feel it flying
A thousand colours ahead
I seem them in my life
But never from my bed
Valiant effort
Yes, nothing, is above it all
It leads me astray,
But away from the fall
The downwell is dangerous
And I see no reason there
I peak my head down
But it never seems any clear

I look apon the fields
Where I found reason
I see the end, not the beginning
Not love, but treason
I feel alone, yet again
Nothing fills this void
A loveless past and pressent
Means my future is destroyed

Festival of the Lost - VII

Everything changes
While I stay behind
The future declines me
As I embrace time
I see within the eye
The storm brewing anew
Too many people to feel
As those i meet, are too few
I grasp on to precious feelings
A blue flower in my dreams
I cry to the songs of the lost
As no new future shows its seams
Odenna and the blue
I seek to understand
Why there are so many of you?
Lost within my heart
Do not dare to speak of blame
I lost it all when I lost them
My future, my life, my name

Pleasureless - VIII

A baren future, no hand
A king befallen regicide
This romantic hoplessness
Has no pleasure and no pride
A castle build with effort
And I live within it
A butter building
Melting by the minute

Sanctuary - IX

To all the emotions
And all the flirt
To all the people
That I have hurt
A sanctuary for our visions
And a place for rest
As we push our loved ones
And wish for their best
To the conversations
The memories and the past
You know your first,
Nobody knows the last
Our future holds no candle
To the flame that once stood lit
To the ones that lost meaning
Or the ones that quit
The friends, the lovers
The despair and heartbreak
Living in infamy
Between the heartless and the fake
To the future
May it be written well
To the friends I lost
May they all be swell
To all the friends
We made along the way
Join me in the sanctuary
Where all the memories stay

Eyes of Tomorrow - X

The splicers hide their minds
As they seek one all anew
A science, damned, forbidden
Relished by few
A red cloak flags in the wind
As the winter bites your cowl
You rev your machines engines
As the cold wind howls
Wielding darkness, Wielding light
The enemy swaps places
We seek new answers
The conflict, lied on stasis

We seek to destroy
Salvations wretched plan
They latch on to the walls
The eliksnis last stand
They seek the technology
On which Humanity would borrow
Blinded, scoured by the past
They seek eyes of Tomorrow

Powerless Misstakes - XI

As words are written powerless
The future ascends the throne
I blink into the arms of people
I open to being alone
In times of trubble I sing the song
The people follow through
I drink the wine, I bide my time
I find another "you"
In past events I forget, I think
I dine another place
A king of the clouds, a Knight of the wind
A no-one fell from grace
Not once, not twice, through life he lies
And I blink once again
A lover lost, no colours, no cost
A nobody once a friend

The End: Part VI (The Wicked) - XII

A while ago, I promised
That one day I'd die alone
A mindless creatue followed
As my soul returned home
I looked back upon
The treads in the light
I thought about my faliures
And the things that I did right
Sing for me, violinist
And Laex will light aflame
Her vicious magic fules me
While the future lays tame
Once again I'm torn apart
New location, same pain

Repeated cycle, new poem
Infinite last refrain
A pool of blighted people
Could not find my peace
As I crossed endless mountains
Just to feel release
Years have passed since amaranth
And less so since the blue
They feel like sorrow yesterday
When my thoughts befall onto you
The emotions stand arisen
They stood the test of time
They echo all through My endless, pityed rhymes
Yesterday's ending
Proves the note's prosperity
I lose the chance for you
While retaking the memory
I flaunt my efforts
In the new light of mine
I push ahead into the horizon
As the past seems sublime
I pray for the wicked
As I lay my hands together
I seek the ending to my misery
But I doubt it would be any better
Laex returns to heart
Her magic as cruel as ever
Reviving one final ending
As the ending goes on forever

The Queen of the Hive - XIII

I seek further judgment
That day lingers instead
My back against the wall
The pillow, quiet in my bed
The scent of inquisition
And the ever longing stow
To once loved, once lost
A toast to letting go
A toast, but no partner
A tear falls upon her cheek
It's been a month, a year
But somehow feels like a week

Nowhere to inquire
A communication for the dead
Our lives live separate
As we both live in dread
A dead queen bee
Disrupts a million hives
Forever in my head, be the last Until a new one arrives

The Factory - XIV

In the time before the madness
I would rest in lands of stone
I'd treat my travels dearly.
While soulless bound, alone
We saw beauty in the garden.
We saw salvation, and its curse.
Only a life as good as can be Ever becomes worse
In the drawings, we saw life
And found it all the same
I saw truth and lies
But no one took the blame
It fabricated results
Told a tale of somewhat truths
Paintings etch the words alone
Two lovers, passionate youths
But passion turns to anguish
And anguish into dread
Sow the perfect solution
Turn the needle on its head
The walls engraved in words
That stand of unriddled paint
One can find no solution
But answers, written faint
To the eye of the beholder
Solves the lovers crest
The sleepless makes a funny noise
As the sleepless fall to rest

Gospel - XV

Greif strikes the city
In which we guide to meet

I find my mind, mesmerised
As gospel paves the steeet
In reference I see diamonds
And in destruction, those that remain
She sees stars through my passion
And in my words, pain
The plate controls my actions
It leads me astray
I want to keep them closer
But prospects fade away
I could be invincible
For all I hope and care
Nothing will bring me closer
To the last day you were here

Sorrows Harbour - XVI

Bodies line my thoughts
Meaningless, they float adrift
Winters sorrow bursts my bubble
As their heart causes lift
A pain I've grown a fondness
As dubious as it may sound Bark gently at the kitten
As quickly painted a hound
Formerly frost would chill me
As a scarf enamores my soul
A mischievous action calls
As my sorrow grows whole

Corridors of Time - XVII

In a new wave of passion
I wake from this dream
New eyes, I found them
As I explain what I've seen
A king of the clouds
In Yar's paradise
I hide my true intentions
Under mask and disguise
I see reflections, like water
It waves and goes away
As soon as it appears it's gone
Praying it would stay
I feel the emotion left behind

Prancing like old words, a rhyme
Fluttering in my heart
In the corridors of time
The halls lie empty
At least from what I see
I hear chatter and laughter
Gathining around me
Crescendoing trancendance
As two eyes turn to eight
Seal me in my own dispair
And tell me of my fate
No energy for a future
Too much, spent on the past
I slow down my mind
As the world goes too fast
I cannot catch up
Cannot catch my breath
The corridors of time beckons
As my eyes meet with death
And eight turns to two
As two turn to none
Ending where we started
As we started to become
My hope is my riches
And I'm only worth a dime
As I flee into solitude
In the corridors of time

The Third Degree of Sunlight - XVIII

The window is stuck
As I move to release
The -pane underneath is reckless
And the -sill, begging please
I want to see a future
But your fission breeds doubt
Turning laughter into whispers
And as you whisper, I shout
From a rosebed of emotion
My mind rots to slumber
A terrain, I know dearly
A new verse to the song
But the melody is sharp
A bit overtuned, speeding

Glaringly untuned harp
I don't understand
And I don't know if I ever will
A third degree of sunlight
Out cold on the windowsill

Sins of the Past - XIX

Fickle words thrown around
Meant only as a tease
At first they're gentle
Architected to please
But words turn harrow
With times, a vitriolic pace
There is no duty worse than words
And no royalty without grace
With my crown of sorrow
Let me forever reign
Based not on the sins of my past
Nor as the monster I became
Let the words drip forver
Reminding me of defeat
As we trod a forward path
To the place, the beginning street
Words jump, up and down
I ask myself forever
Is there a heart inside the night?
And is her worth, endured, endeavor?
Judge me not my failures
On the coups I did not combat
On the expeditions into wilderness
Up the mountains, terrain flat
Her words echo into eons
And bounce around the stars
Her music sparks old passions
Her words open old scars

Touch - XX

I open my phone
To stare at the bright lights
I do this every morning
I do this every night
My fingers are tired

And my soul even more
A magnitude of nothingness
As sleeping becomes a chore
However, it feels easier
Than leaving this state
I blankly stare for hours
Accepting my fate
Oh no, there she is
Her face upon my screen
An inevitable nightmare
Of the social media machine
Now every picture
Her eyes, her lips
No barrier of entry
A message on my fingertips
One click and it's gone
My mind retreats once more
An abundance of omnipresence
As awakening becomes a chore
I open my phone
To touch at the bright lights
I do this every morning
I do this every night

Memorabilia - XXI

As I look back upon my journey
From Inahavens molten core
I see a man I used to be
But don't recognize anymore
A confident, but cocky
Unclaimed young man
Unwilling to learn, and to listen
To focus and understand
As we walked through the plains of Lypso
As we wandered in our own soul
We learned of our place
And we manifested our goal
Through the lake of Violina
To the Lost gardens of Yar
It never feels like a journey alone
But together we got far
A story spans forever
Through generations of text
We can always look upon our past

But never know what's next
Memorabilia, nostalgia
And a dash of contempt
We can all look towards the future
But the past makes us exempt
From embracing our lovely selves
And our far flung truths
We bathe in our sexuality
And identify as youths
Kiss me, sweet nothingness
And let me walk alone
No matter how long I walk
I will never get home

Letters to Peresteena

2022 - 2024

Informing on a life worth living.

My Fears - I

It has come to my attention
That we are bound to these dreams
A love that spans centuries
A hope, as bright as its beams
I wilfully change my passion
As it suits our pursuit
Grant me passage, sweet princess
Let me not allow to pillage for loot
I am but blind in your eyes
As I see no future there
I write you messages now, Peresteena
Not out of love, out of fear
For while the present demands me
And my past recognizes none
I am tied to the feeling
Of becoming someone
That might die to this feeling
As it is worth dying to My letters grant passage
And my anxiety follows through

My Flaws - II

I write to you this day
With echoes of remorse
Letters riddled with lies
Messages causing discourse
Rarely reminded of this truth
I pick my narrative
I chose to see what I want
Remember what I believe
It helps my understanding
But it drags my cause
For how good are your strengths
Without recognizing your flaws?
Laex had no flaws
In my narrative mind
She was passionate, loving
Elegant and kind
Why would I want this?
In the future I foresee
Let's seek some other comfort
And let's see how that can be

My Actions - III

I looked her in the eyes
As I saw what she said
A visual queue trapped
Deep within my head
It drew something out of me
An impulse, nothing more
But the past holds no candle
To the actions made before
I make my bed and sleep
As I fall into dreams
Life might seem precious
But it is not all what it seems

My Mistakes - IV

I am haunted by facts
I am riddled with my sins
I don't know where my suffer ends
And where my healing begins
My words spark feelings
And those feelings spark words
And instead of getting what I wanted
I'm hearing things I never heard
They design me, and refrain me
From within this room, this hole
My last sung virtues
Crawling out of my soul
I trust myself in the mornings
I trust myself when we'd sleep
Waking to your voice
Dreaming further deep
I could feel you months later
When my passion fell ill
When you confronted my mistakes
And perjured my will
I sleep now in silence
As I once did then
Now with no new partner
And no new friend
Peresteena rules this day
But Mayasteena stays behind
Hiding in plain sight
As I seek the one I cannot find

My Finality - V

As the day falls to rest
I recount my final days
We always pray for greetings
Pray this time for parted ways
A new chapter, a new view
The same me, the same you
I look upon my penumbra
With thoughts of pride
When I know in that time
I had no-one to confide
Why am I bound
To the day that lies behind
When I know well and perfect
There are always new things to find?
Two eras away now
I yearn to find a break
To the disruptive actions
Finding reality within the fake
In my finality I see light
Because fickle words always do
Then pray tell, why my cold heart
Still wonders about you?

My Individuality - VI

If this week of change
As taught me one thing
It's to embrace the hurtful
A sweet sorrows sting
I could climb for ages
With no goal in mind
I could live in darkness
Not knowing what I'd find
But a part of me lusts
For the thing life will not grant
My hands, resolving embrace
And my body knows it can't
So, although not whole,
Is that not enough?
Do I need all of me
To beat through the rough?
Maybe I gave her too much
And now I am without

No soul to luster
Nobody to doubt
There is nothing left of me
When the dust settles in stone
Read the writing on the wall, Laex
Without you I'm alone

My Sacrifice - VII

If this week of change
As tought me one thing
It's to emrbace the hurtful
A sweet sorrows sting
I could climb for ages
With no goal in mind
I could live in darkness
Not knowing what I'd find
But a part of me lusts
For the thing life will not grant
My hands, resolving embrace
And my body knows it can't
So, although not whole,
Is that not enough?
Do I need all of me
To beat through the rough?
And now I am without
No soul to luster
Nobody to doubt
There is nothing left of me
When the dust settles in stone
Read the writing on the wall, Laex
Without you I'm alone

My Secrets - VIII

A day at a time
I wrongfully accuse
My blatant act of kindness
My wilful excuse
Found words hidden from me
A different time by far
Err, I declared, alone
May question who you are

Hid from everyone
Myself included obviously
My secrets plague my inner Dementing you and me
Forgotten, farewell
My sweet new ghost
Letters to Peresteena
But no-one to carry my post
In the distance, a garden
With flowers and with fruit
My blissful darling resides there
Elegantly playing the flute
But all music goes sharp
As the tune switches tone
I'd rather cry in comfort
Than laugh all alone
And for you my dear love
May hope lie close
I fear sadness for the woman
In the garden of the rose

My Intentions - IX

As I stand, as I say
I could walk a thousand miles
I could write pretty letters
I could send my goodbyes
There are many a thing
For some reason I do intend Playing cards with my emotions
Hiding, playing pretend
Many a name would they call me
As intentions changed so did they
I could do nothing more than few
Bend my knees, fold and pray
Her vision flashes before me
And I intend to pursue
Find out if I still want it
And hoping you do too

My Connections - X

We form our duly manners
In an orthodox way

We carry issues with us
As actors conducting play
We fill the shoes of those before
But our feet are far too small
We build our terrace with no railing
Hoping we don't fall
But when we do, we suffer
With no medication to aid
I'd tell you I'm ready for it
But frankly I'm afraid
"And rightfully so" I say
In the echo chamber of my mind
Failing to see right before me
As my connections fall behind
So I need bridges to you
But it cannot be me
If I build these bridges
I would never be free
As they'd connect us together
But the cobblestone would be mine
And we all know the future
Where I'm broken and you're fine
Our bridges are always built
To cover narrow gaps
I watch them very eagerly
As I feel time elapse

The End
